NOTICE TO THE INDIVIDUAL SIGNING THE ILLINOIS STATUTORY SHORT FORM POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR PROPERTY

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. The form that you will be signing is a legal document. It is governed by the Illinois Power of Attorney Act. If there is anything about this form that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.

The purpose of this Power of Attorney is to give your designated "agent" broad powers to handle your financial affairs, which may include the power to pledge, sell, or dispose of any of your real or personal property, even without your consent or any advance notice to you. When using the Statutory Short Form, you may name successor agents, but you may not name co-agents.

This form does not impose a duty upon your agent to handle your financial affairs, so it is important that you select an agent who will agree to do this for you. It is also important to select an agent whom you trust, since you are giving that agent control over your financial assets and property. Any agent who does act for you has a duty to act in good faith for your benefit and to use due care, competence, and diligence. He or she must also act in accordance with the law and with the directions in this form. Your agent must keep a record of all receipts, disbursements, and significant actions taken as your agent.

Unless you specifically limit the period of time that this Power of Attorney will be in effect, your agent may exercise the powers given to him or her throughout your lifetime, both before and after you become incapacitated. A court, however, can take away the powers of your agent if it finds that the agent is not acting properly. You may also revoke this Power of Attorney if you wish.

This Power of Attorney does not authorize your agent to appear in court for you as an attorney-at-law or otherwise to engage in the practice of law unless he or she is a licensed attorney who is authorized to practice law in Illinois.

The powers you give your agent are explained more fully in Section 3-4 of the Illinois Power of Attorney Act. This form is a part of that law. The "NOTE" paragraphs throughout this form are instructions.

You are not required to sign this Power of Attorney, but it will not take effect without your signature. You should not sign this Power of Attorney if you do not understand everything in it, and what your agent will be able to do if you do sign it.

Please place your initials on the following line indicating that you have read this Notice:

Sustainable Strategies

- Renovate: keep the existing structure and re-appropriate the industrial loft space for a new single family residence. Limit demolition to reduce landfill.
- Open Space: Create three internal open-air courtyards within the existing structure in order to maximize use of natural day-lighting and reduce artificial lighting / power usage.
- Rainwater Harvesting: In the open-air courtyards, collect rainwater from the existing roof structure and re-use for landscape irrigation.
- Landscaping: In the open-air courtyards, plant landscaping and use pervious materials to promote natural water drainage.
- Radiant Heat: provide radiant heat tubing in both the basement and main floor concrete slab, maximizing efficiency and minimizing energy usage.
- Foam Insulation: use soy-based foam insulation for all wall and roof areas.
- Windows and Doors: All new low-e insulated glass doors and windows to replace existing openings and for new courtyard openings.
- Energy Production: Use open south-facing roof for solar thermal panels to feed into radiant heat floor. and photo-voltaic panels for supplementing power.
- LED Lighting: Use LED light fixtures to reduce power needs.

NARRATIVE

Built in 1887 as the Lakeside Club and known since 1917 as Unity Hall, the building was the headquarters of a political organization called the Peoples Movement Club headed by Oscar Stanton DePriest. Mr. DePriest was the first African-American elected to the Chicago City Council and the first northern African-American elected to the U.S. House of Representatives. Designed by architect L.B. Dixon, Unity Hall became the center of African-American political activity in 1917 when City Councilman DePriest moved his Peoples Movement Club into the building.

Shortly after World War II, Unity Hall was used as a Church. The building's appearance remained largely as originally designed with the exception of its painted exterior masonry and alterations to the front doorway and porch. This rare surviving example of a 19th century clubhouse building is one of nine such structures in the Bronzeville Historic District.

The current Owner of Unity Hall plans to renovate the historic masonry structure consisting of the 2 story church and 3 story attached front building into 25 residential student housing apartment dwelling units with no parking.

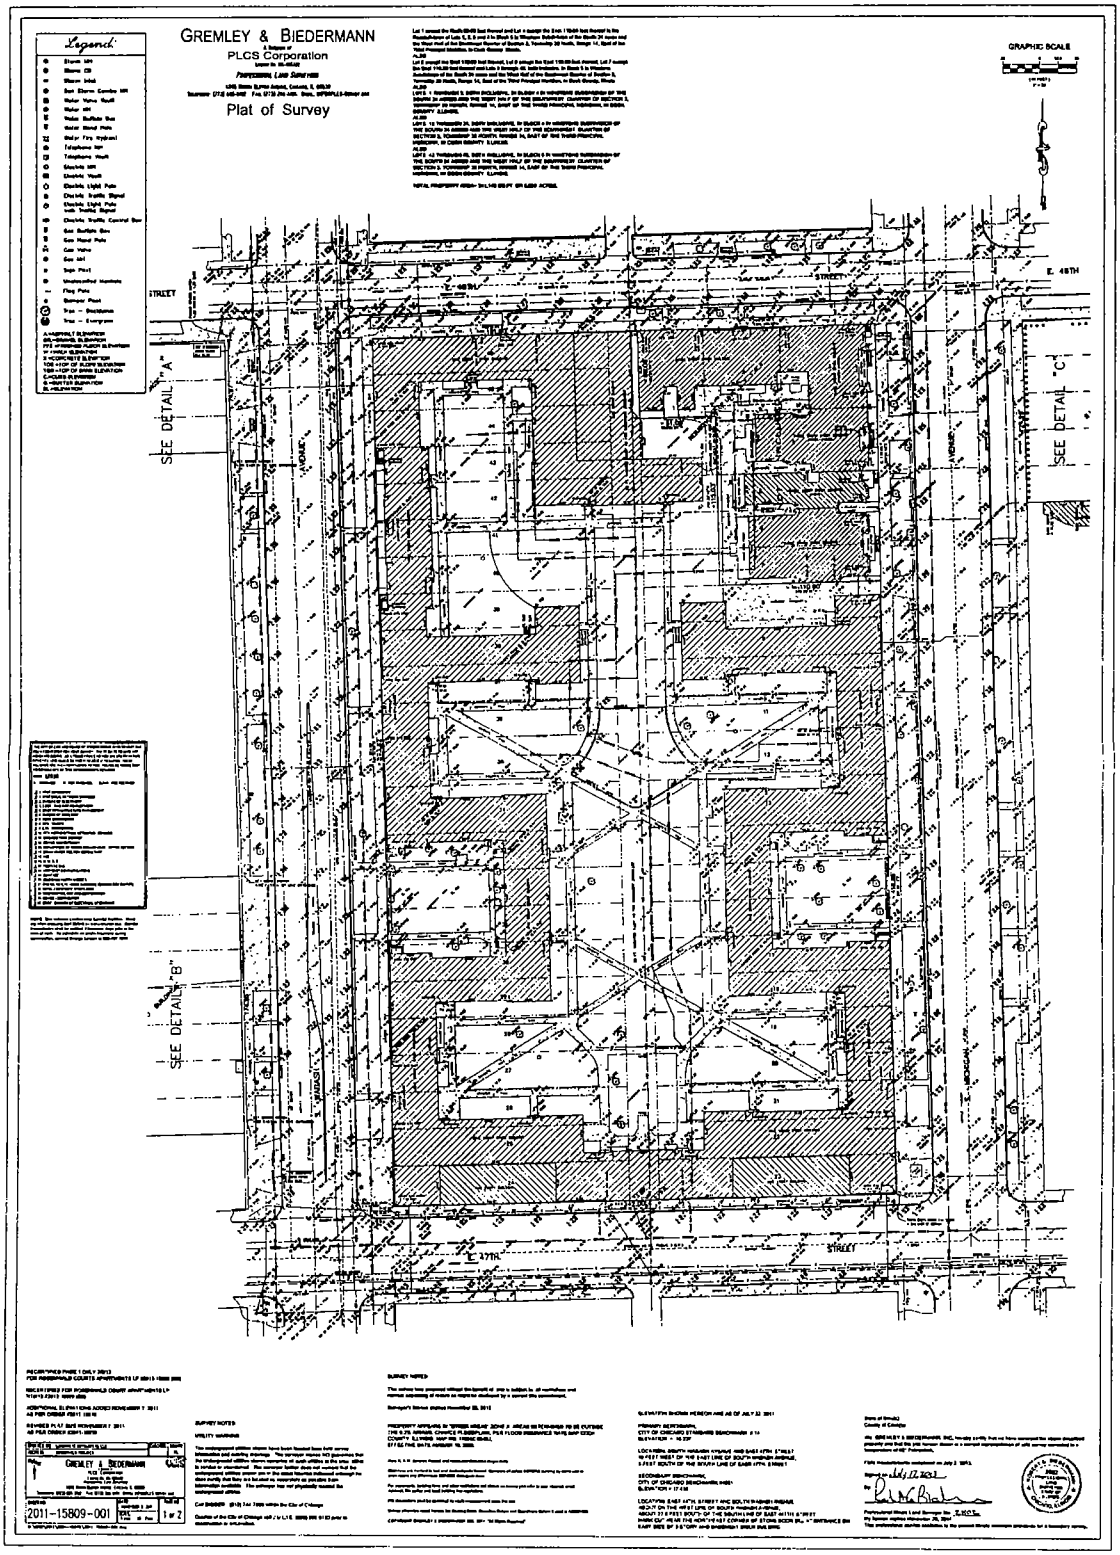
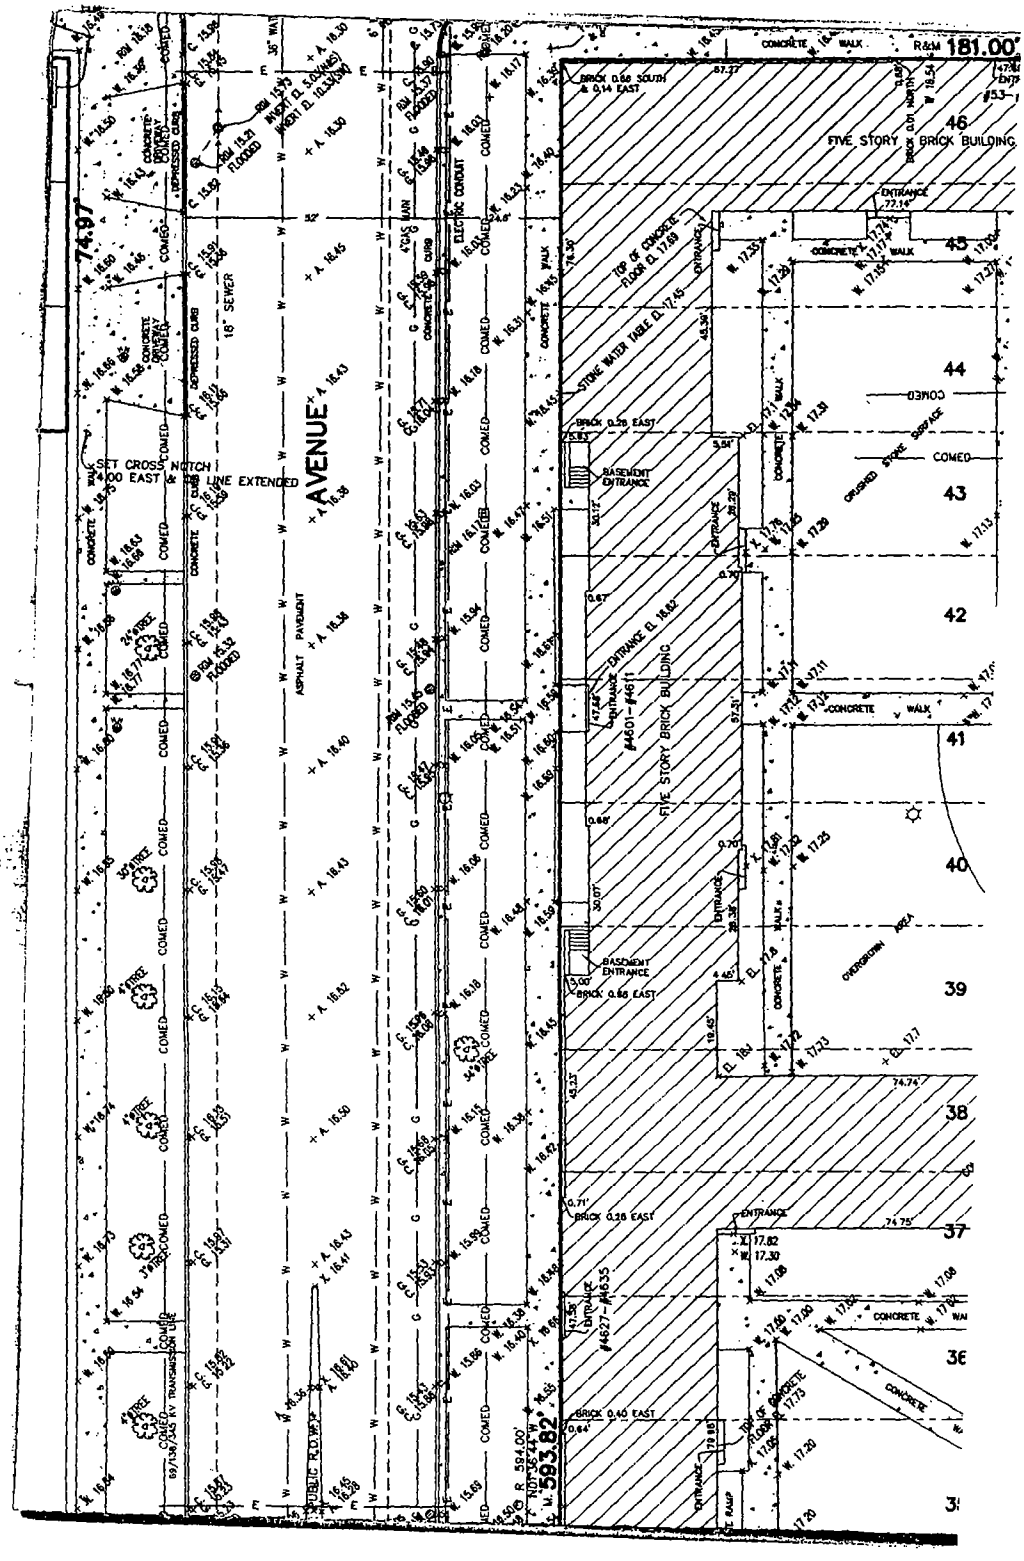
Dear Alderman Solis:

Please be advised that I have reviewed the proposal of Rosenwald Courts LP, a Delaware limited partnership (the "Applicant") to amend the Chicago Zoning Ordinance to change the zoning of the property situated at 56-60 E. 47th Street and 4609-39 S. Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois and commonly known as the Rosenwald Building from a combination of B3-2 Community Shopping District, B3-3 Community Shopping District and RM-5 Multi-Unit District to a single, uniform B2-3 Neighborhood Mixed-Use District zoning classification.



I understand that the Applicant intends to rehabilitate the Rosenwald Building into a mixed-use residential and commercial development.



Please be advised that I support the Applicant's application for a zoning map amendment to amend the zoning classification of the Property from a combination of B3-2, B3-3 and RM-5 to a single, uniform B2-3 Neighborhood Mixed-Use District zoning classification.

Sincerely,
