Re: Resolution supporting and consenting to the renewal of Class 6(b) classification tax incentive (the "Class 6(b) Renewal") for the benefit of Chicago Manufacturing Campus, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Applicant") and real property generally located at 126th Street and Torrence Avenue which has been subdivided into parcels commonly known as (i) 12525 S. Carondolet; (ii) 2924 E. 126th Place; (iii) 12350 S. Carondolet aka 3400 E. 126th Place; and (iv) 12359 S. Burley (the "Subject Property") pursuant to Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance

Attached hereto is the final form of resolution supporting and consenting to the above-referenced Class 6(b) Renewal pursuant to the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. As we have discussed: (i) due to a re-subdivision of the Subject Property into parcels with the 4 common addresses referenced above, the legal descriptions should be verified by title and survey or the records available with the Cook County Recorder of Deeds and (ii) regarding the original application for a Class 6(b) incentive there was no amendment to the original application (or filing of an additional application) by the Applicant to add additional property the Applicant owned as is mentioned in the City resolution supporting the original grant of the Class 6(b) tax incentive. Also attached hereto, are the final Economic Disclosure Statements and Affidavits for the Applicant and all related legal entities.

Finally, it is my understanding from you that HED has carefully and fully considered the implications of issuing the Class 6(b) tax incentive for the Subject Property which is located in the 126th and Torrence Redevelopment Project Area, the increment of which may have been pledged as security for the repayment of other obligations (e.g. the issuance of bonds) incurred by the City.
