Committee(s) Assignment:	Committee on Transportation and Public Way

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Chicago Transit Authority is the nation's second largest public transportation system, providing 1.6 million transit rides daily and 516 million transit rides annually, directly servicing two major international airports; and

WHEREAS, the Chicago Transit Authority operates on the public way, pursuant to a franchise granted in 1945 by the City Council of Chicago, and receives funds from the Chicago Real Property Transfer Tax; and

WHEREAS, the Chicago Transit Authority is the sole means of reliable transportation for thousands of Chicago metropolitan area residents and a crucial component in reducing carbon emissions and urban congestion; and

WHEREAS, payment options for ridership have regularly evolved and expanded to provide convenience to the customer and to stay current with technology: entering the digital age in 1997 by replacing tokens with a magnetic strip fare card, then adding the contactless Chicago Card system, which featured an automatic payment option when linked to a credit card. Ventra, in keeping with technological advances, is intended to replace a sixteen-year-old magnetic strip card and eleven-year-old Chicago Card payment system, and;

WHEREAS, the Chicago Transit Authority entered into a ten-year contract valued at $454 million with Cubic Transportation Systems to transition customers completely to the Ventra card system; and

WHEREAS, Ventra has been created to standardize payment options for the customers of the Chicago Transit Authority and Pace bus system, and for the convenience of both the transit system and passengers and improved and accessible customer service; and

WHEREAS, reported complaints about Ventra and its parent company, Cubic Transportations Systems, include, but are not limited to: customers experiencing prohibitively long wait times to receive or activate Ventra cards, customers charged multiple times for a single ride, inconveniently long wait times for customer service calls, customers charged for calls placed to the customer service center, excessive delivery of cards to registered addresses, and delays in overcharge complaints being reconciled; and

WHEREAS, persistent failure to resolve system-wide problems and delay in the planned transition process has caused frustration and immeasurable inconvenience to transit users of the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, a consistent and orderly transit system in a city as large and populous as Chicago is a component of effective infrastructure and a viable local economy; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, the Committee on Transportation and Public Way of the City of Chicago shall conduct a hearing on matters pertaining to the Ventra card transition, and shall request the appearance knowledgeable representatives of the Chicago Transit Authority and

Cubic Transportation System. The hearing shall address problematic issues in the Ventra system, as well as feasible and timely solutions. The hearing will also request accountability from Cubic Transportation Systems and require an update on the status of the Ventra program; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: the Committee on Transportation and Public Way shall request from the Chicago Transit Authority and Cubic Transportation Systems an updated timeline for complete transition away from the previous fare collection system, numbers of employees assigned to Ventra customer service, current average wait times for customer service calls, details of software and system changes to eliminate multiple charges to customers who posses contactless cards, a plan of action for reimbursement to customers, and an increase in customer service staff. The Committee shall also request a copy of the budget to enact these plans, illustrating the availability and quantity of funds necessary for these improvements.

Committee(s) Assignment:	Committee on Special Events, Cultural Affairs and Recreation

Special Events

WHEREAS, Located at 78 East Washington Street, the Cultural Center of the City of Chicago is an important contributor to the artistic vitality and cultural vibrancy of our City; and

WHEREAS, Groundbreaking for this neo-classical building took place on July 27, 1892. Featuring Greek columns and Roman arches, it measures 352 feet north to south and 134 feet east to west. In October 1897 the building was completed for what would originally become the Chicago Public Library; and

WHEREAS, The building originally housed a grand library and a serenely beautiful Memorial Hall dedicated to Northern soldiers who fought in the Civil War. The instructions to the architects specified that the new library convey to the beholder the idea that the building would be an enduring monument worthy of a great and public-spirited city; and

WHEREAS, When the building first opened to the public, almost 10,000 Chicagoans a day flocked to see the elegant structure with its two dazzling stained-glass domes; white marble stairways and walls decorated with shimmering mother-of-pearl and colored glass mosaics; green marble war memorial rooms containing the names of important battles; and beautiful coffered ceilings; and

WHEREAS, The mission of the Cultural Center includes fostering the development of Chicago's non-profit arts sector, independent working artists and for-profit arts businesses; providing a framework to guide the City's future cultural and economic growth, via the 2012 Chicago Cultural Plan; marketing the City's cultural assets to a worldwide audience and presenting high-quality, free and affordable cultural programs for residents and visitors; and

WHEREAS, On February 7, 1972, Mayor Richard J. Daley formed a special six-person committee to consider the future of the beautiful edifice at 78 East Washington Street. Four days later, in a rare public comment, Eleanor "Sis" Daley, the Mayor's wife, was quoted in the Chicago press as saying that she was for restoring and keeping all the beautiful buildings in Chicago. Within three weeks, the Mayor's committee announced that the building would be saved; and

WHEREAS, As First Lady of Chicago from 1955 until 1976, Eleanor "Sis" Daley was an inspirational advocate for the cultural scene in Chicago. Her legacy in Chicago is one of raising public awareness regarding cultural events and for that she should be honored; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor and Members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, assembled this thirteenth day of November, 2013, do hereby call upon the City Council Committee on Special Events, Cultural Affairs and Recreation to convene a hearing to consider the feasibility, advisability and appropriateness of naming the City's cultural center as: "The Eleanor 'Sis' Daley Cultural Center" to suitably commemorate Eleanor Daley's work in preserving the building where the Cultural Center currently resides and for her dedication to the arts and civic life of Chicago.

WHEREAS, The United Nations reports that 2.4 million people across the globe are victims of human trafficking at any one time, and 80 percent of them are being exploited as sexual slaves; and

WHEREAS, At least 16,000 women and girls are involved in the sex trade every year in Chicago, many of whom are victims of human trafficking; and

WHEREAS, In 2007, the United States House of Representatives passed H.R. 121 which called upon the Japanese government to accept historical responsibility for the sexual enslavement of "comfort women" by the Imperial Japanese Army and educate future generations about these crimes; and

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago stands against human trafficking in all its forms; now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor and the members of the Chicago City Council, assembled this thirteenth day of November, 2013, do hereby recognize and support "comfort women" by acknowledging as historical fact the suffering they endured during their forced internment in Japanese military comfort stations; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we urge all Chicago educators to share with students of an appropriate age the story of "comfort women" when discussing the history of Asia or World War II, or the issue of human trafficking; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we further commit to exploring ways to develop an Asian American social science and history curriculum for public schools that would provide one centralized structure for the shared history of events, such as the story of "comfort women" or the forced incarceration of Japanese-Americans during World War II, along with many other examples of Asian American experiences in the United States; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we reaffirm our commitment to ending all forms of violence and trafficking of women in the City of Chicago; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That suitable copies of this resolution be presented to the executive directors of the Korean American Resource & Cultural Center, Korean American Voter Organizing Initiative & Community Empowerment, Korean American Women in Need, the Japanese American Service Committee, the Cambodian Association of Illinois, and Asian Americans Advancing Justice-Chicago.
