Resolution Urging the Commissioners of Men's Sports to Publicly Support Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Athletes

WHEREAS, the City of Chicago has been the proud home to seven professional sports teams that have electrified and united our city: Cubs, White Sox, Bears, Sky, Bulls, Blackhawks, and Fire; and,

WHEREAS, Chicagoans of all genders, races, and classes, celebrate our teams' accomplishments as shared victories, yet gay professional athletes feel the need to remain closeted; and,

WHEREAS, unlike most other professions today, participants in professional sports believe they cannot be open about their sexual orientation; no active male player in any of the five major professional sports leagues in the United States has ever publicly acknowledged being gay; and,

WHEREAS, the U.S. military, once one of the last bastions of discrimination against LGBT individuals, now recognizes the need to address prejudice openly, instead of assuming it does not exist; and,

WHEREAS, the Chicago Cubs and Chicago Blackhawks, recognizing the importance of inclusion, began participating in the annual Chicago LGBT Pride Parade in June 2010; and,

WHEREAS, the Chicago Cubs recorded a video featuring coaches and players—Manager Mike Quade, first base Coach Bob Dernier, pitcher Ryan Dempster, outfielder Marlon Byrd and second baseman Darwin Barney—for the "It Gets Better Project," becoming the second Major League Baseball team to participate in the online campaign aimed at curbing suicides among LGBT youth; and,

WHEREAS, Robbie Rogers, a former professional soccer player for the Chicago Fire, who came out as gay at the same time he announced his retirement would be welcomed back to the Fire as evidenced by Fire Coach Frank Klopas' statement: "Should Robbie want to return to the game, we would still be open to him being part of the Fire"; and,

WHEREAS, Bias-based harassment is far too often complicit in the disturbing number of LGBT youth taking their own lives; and,

WHEREAS, Our LGBT youth need LGBT sports heroes, in addition to other influential role models; and,

WHEREAS, With this in mind, the Last Closet Project campaign leadership, under the auspices of the nonprofit organization Woman Vision, is seeking interviews with all the major league sports Commissioners for the purpose of filming a statement of affirmation for LGBT athletes; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That we, the Mayor, and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago respectfully request that the Commissioners of Baseball, Football, Basketball, Hockey, and Soccer use the authority of their office to sanction players who have engaged in specific incidents of slurs and intolerance toward LGBT athletes; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Commissioners state in a public interview their support for LGBT players and invite them to come out and, once they are out, pledge to make them safe and accepted; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig, Football Commissioner Roger Goodell, Basketball Commissioner David Stern, Hockey Commissioner Gary Bettman, and Soccer Commissioner Don Garber.

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD

BACKGROUND

Public hearings were held on this application by the Zoning Board of Appeals at its regular meeting held on September 21, 2012, after due notice thereof as provided under Chicago Municipal Code ("MCC") Section 17-13-0107-B and by publication in the Chicago Sun–Times.

The Zoning Administrator denied the application of Media

APPROVED AS TO SUBSTANCE

CHAIRMAN

Communications, Inc. (the "Applicant") for a permit for an off-premise/advertising wall sign measuring 60' in height and 20' in length for a total of 1200 sq. ft. in that it violated MCC 17-12-1002-F which prohibits signs on Pedestrian Streets, as the proposed sign would be located at 2616 North Milwaukee Avenue in Chicago (the "Subject Property") which has been designated as a Pedestrian Street; and the resultant sign would violate MCC 17-12-1006-A which entirely prohibits off-premise signs within 100' of a Residential District as the Subject Property is within 100' of a Residential District; MCC 17-12-1003-E which allows a maximum combined size of 200 sq. ft. total, combined surface of signs on a building in the zoning district where the Subject Property is located and the building at the Subject Property already displays signs which exceed the allowable combined sq. ft. allowable; and MCC 17-12-1006-H which prohibits off premise signs within 300' any other off-premises advertising sign and Applicant seeks a permit for two signs on the same building within 20' of each other.

The Applicant claimed legal non-conforming status for the signs at the Subject Property which would allow the Application to be granted as signs which pre-date 1990 as "grandfathered" and considered legal non-conforming signs and changes of content are permissible and in this instance should be permitted.

The Applicant presented its case and the Objectors testified in opposition. Applicant presented photographs of the Subject Property with various signs painted on the side of the building; Objectors presented inspection reports from the City's Buildings Department citing illegal non-conforming signs on the building at the Subject Property. Both sides presented memoranda of law on its behalf.

FINDINGS AND RESOLUTION

Pursuant to Sections 17-13-1207 and 17-13-1208 of the Chicago Zoning Ordinance, the Zoning Board of Appeals may only sustain an appeal if it finds that the Zoning Administrator erred. The Board must grant a presumption of correctness to the Zoning Administrator's decision, and the burden of persuasion is on the appellant. Having fully heard the testimony and arguments of the parties, and being fully advised in the matter, the Zoning Board of Appeals now makes the following findings regarding the Applicant's appeal:

1. The Applicant provided proper notice, both by mail and by posting.

2. At issue is MCC 17-6.7-1(c) (1990) "A legal non-conforming sign shall not be altered, expanded, or relocated in any way, other than to perform normal and necessary repairs or to change copy of the sign"; Applicant maintains that the signs on the side of the building at the Subject Property have always been present since well prior to 1990, and if not present, they were reinstalled within a year as a gap of less than a year is allowable. Objectors maintain that not only had more than an allowable time lapse in which no sign was displayed on the wall of the Subject Property, but, also, that Applicant's intended method of installing new signs would constitute an impermissible "alteration" of the sign in violation of MCC 17-15-0504.

3. The Board finds that as there were frequently signs of varying sizes on the side of the building at the Subject Property.

4. The Board finds that the method by which the Applicant intends to affix new signs to the building at the Subject Property does not violate MCC 17-15-0504.

Therefore, the Board hereby reverses the decision of the Zoning Administrator. The Applicant's appeal is granted. The permit which was denied and which constituted the basis of the Appeal should be granted. This is a final decision subject to review under the Illinois Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3).
