RESOLUTION CALLING FOR CITY-MANDATED WARRANTIES IN RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT & CONSTRUCTION

WHEREAS, Since 1990, Chicago experienced a reinvestment and building boom that is unparalleled since the reconstruction of Chicago after the Great Fire of 1871; and,

WHEREAS, Although many substantial commercial and residential buildings were constructed during this period, there were also many buildings, recently built or renovated, that are sub-standard in the quality of design, materials and/or execution. This has caused undue financial strain and emotional duress to the owners, occupants and tenants of these buildings in the forms of unfulfilled warranties, latent defects, water damage, costly repairs, skyrocketing assessments, building code and zoning violations, and diminishing value; and,

WHEREAS, Poor-quality development and construction as well as misleading marketing has been responsible for creating the conditions under which owners, occupants, tenants, condominium associations and other related parties find themselves with no choice but to abandon their homes in the face of damaged living units, mounting repair costs, special assessments and even foreclosure; and,

WHEREAS, Homeowners, occupants, renters, tenants, lenders, code enforcement officials and municipalities have benefited in other jurisdictions where legislation was enacted to protect residents from the repercussions of poor quality construction and latent defects, now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED That the Committee on Housing and Real Estate expeditiously hold public hearings to produce a Developer Accountability Ordinance and a Homebuyer's Bill of Rights and Warranty Program to discourage this opportunistic trend from proliferating in the future.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED That a copy of this resolution be provided to the Honorable Ray Suarez, Vice-Mayor and the chairman of the committee on housing and real estate.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, on June 22, 2013 the board of directors of The Commuter Rail Division of the Regional Transportation Authority and Northeast Illinois Regional Commuter Railroad Corporation (collectively "Metra") voted 9-1 to accept the resignation of CEO Alex Clifford and approve a separation agreement which authorized an immediate $442,000 payout to Mr. Clifford; and

WHEREAS, Alex Clifford was hired as the Executive Director of the commuter rail system on February 11, 2011 and at the time of his resignation, there were eight months remaining on his $252,500 per year contract; and

WHEREAS, the $442,000 payout figure reportedly includes salary, benefits, vacation pay and six months' severance; and

WHEREAS, Metra could reportedly end up paying $750,000 or more for Mr. Clifford's legal fees (up to $75,000), moving expenses (up to $78,000), health care insurance, and to subsidize his earnings for an additional 12 months to ensure Mr. Clifford is paid the equivalent of his Metra salary through August 11, 2015; and

WHEREAS, for each of the six months from February 11, 2014 through August 11, 2014 Metra shall pay Mr. Clifford $22,993 per month and for each of the twelve months thereafter, through August 11, 2015, should Mr. Clifford earn less each month than what he earned at Metra, Metra has agreed to pay him the difference between what he last earned at Metra and what he earns in his new employment in each such month; and

WHEREAS, the price of Metra monthly and 10-ride passes rose by approximately 29 percent in early 2012, and 10-ride passes spiked another 11 percent this February; and

WHEREAS, the corporate authorities of the City of Chicago intend to ensure that the taxpayer dollars of Chicago residents are being expended appropriately; now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Chairman of the Regional Transportation Authority and the members of the board of directors Metra are hereby invited to appear before the Committee on Finance to testify at a hearing concerning the separation agreement between Metra and its former CEO, Alex Clifford.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the corporate authorities of the City of Chicago are committed to promoting the health, welfare and prosperity of all Chicago residents; and

WHEREAS, according to a new study released by the Citizens Utility Board (CUB), Illinois cell phone users are overpaying for their data plans by approximately $1.4 billion a year; and

WHEREAS, the analysis, which measured the difference between the amount of data paid for and the amount actually used, means Illinois users overpay by an average of approximately $194 on their smartphones and about $30 a year on traditional wireless phones; and

WHEREAS, the $1.4 billion in data overpayments is more than four times the combined team salaries of the Chicago Cubs, Chicago White Sox, and the St. Louis Cardinals; and

WHEREAS, using 2012 Census population estimates, CUB quantified that Chicago consumers are overpaying by an estimated $295.2 million per year; and

WHEREAS, in 2010, the Wall Street Journal cited research that estimated that 70% of all cell phone users are oversubscribed; and

WHEREAS, CUB's analysis reveals that most of the waste is due to oversubscription by consumers who are on plans that give them more data than they will ever use; and

WHEREAS, only a fraction of the overpayments was due to consumers who incur overage penalties because they use more data than their plans allow; and

WHEREAS, CUB features a Cellphone Savings Center, which is a resource designed to help cut wireless costs; and

WHEREAS, CUB's Cellphone Savings Center offers a free online tool, which has instructed AT&T, Sprint and Verizon customers how to save an average of $300 per year by matching them with better plans with their current carriers; and

WHEREAS, the Pew Research Center recently reported that, for the first time ever, a majority of American adults own smartphones; and

WHEREAS, as smartphone use continues to increase, the corporate authorities of the City of Chicago intend to promote customer education on choosing the right cell phone plan; now therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that representatives from the Department of Business Affairs and Consumer Protection and the Citizens Utility Board are hereby invited to appear before the Committee on Finance to testify at a hearing regarding the oversubscription of cell phone data plans.
