Rules Suspended -- NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE HONORED ON ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY.

[R2009-132]

The Honorable Richard M. Daley, Mayor, presented the following communication:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF CHICAGO

February 11, 2009.

To the Honorable, The City Council of the City of Chicago:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN -- Together with Alderman Fioretti, Alderman Ed Smith and Alderman Austin, I transmit herewith a resolution congratulating the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on the occasion of their one hundredth anniversary.

Your favorable consideration of this resolution will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) RICHARD M. DALEY,
Mayor.

Alderman Burke moved to Suspend the Rules Temporarily to permit immediate consideration of and action upon the said proposed resolution. The motion Prevailed.

The following is said proposed resolution:

WHEREAS, The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (N.A.A.C.P.), the nation's oldest and most prominent civil rights organization, was founded on February 12, 1909, in New York City by a multiracial group of progressive thinkers composed of Ida B. Wells-Barnett, W. E. B. Du Bois, Henry Moskowitz, Archibald Grimke, Mary White Ovington, Oswald Garrison Villiard and William English Walling; and

WHEREAS, Growing from a small group of people with limited resources, today the N.A.A.C.P., headquartered in Baltimore, Maryland, with additional regional offices in California; New York, Michigan, Missouri, Georgia and Texas, has more than four hundred thousand members; and

WHEREAS, Originally named the National Negro Committee, the N.A.A.C.P.'s mission is to ensure the political, educational, social and economic equality of rights of all persons and to eliminate racial hatred and racial discrimination, and, in the advancement of this mission, the organization has concentrated in five major areas: anti-lynching legislation, voter participation, employment, due process under the law and education; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception, the N.A.A.C.P. has been at the forefront of every major civil rights struggle, and, through a combination of tactics that included legal challenges, demonstrations and economic boycotts, the N.A.A.C.P. has played a principal role in helping to end segregation and championing social justice in the United States; and

WHEREAS, In its early years, the N.A.A.C.P. was successful in winning the right of African-Americans to serve as officers in the armed forces, ending discrimination in war-related industries and federal employment during World War II, and defeating the South's "whites-only primary" system, which disenfranchised African-American voters; and

WHEREAS, Among the N.A.A.C.P.'s many significant achievements were the organization's successful efforts to overturn Jim Crow statutes by the filing of civil rights litigation. The N.A.A.C.P.'s legal department, headed by Charles Hamilton and Thurmond Marshall, undertook a campaign spanning several decades to bring about a reversal of the United States Supreme Court's "separate but equal" doctrine established in Plessy v. Ferguson, resulting in the 1954 unanimous court decision of Brown v. Board of Education, which struck down separate educational facilities for white and black children as "inherently unequal" and ordered that all public schools be desegregated with "all deliberate speed"; and

WHEREAS, In the latter part of the twentieth century, the N.A.A.C.P. successfully lobbied to enact civil rights legislation aimed at ending racial discrimination in employment, education and public accommodations, including the National Voting Rights Act of 1965, which outlawed discrimination in voting practices, and was extended in 2007 for an additional twenty-five years; and

WHEREAS, For the past century, the N.A.A.C.P. grew on the collective courage of thousands of people of all races, nationalities and faiths united in the premise that all men and women are created equal, and as it begins its second century of activism, the N.A.A.C.P. continues to be in the forefront of the civil rights movement; and

WHEREAS, In the course of its long and proud history, the N.A.A.C.P. has changed American history and has lit a torch for equality and social justice; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that the City of Chicago salute the N.A.A.C.P. for its century of commitment and sacrifice for the advancement of equality of all citizens; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we, the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, assembled this eleventh day of February, 2009, do hereby recognize and congratulate the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on the occasion of its one hundredth anniversary, and extend our sincere appreciation for its major contributions to all of the nation's citizens; and

Be It Further Resolved, That suitable copies of this resolution be presented to Karl A. Brinson and Sammy W. Lacey, Jr., Presidents of Chicago's West and South Side branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, as a sign of our esteem and good wishes.

On motion of Alderman Burke, seconded by Aldermen Fioretti, Preckwinkle, Lyle, E. Smith, Austin and Mitts, the foregoing proposed resolution was Adopted by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas-- Aldermen Flores, Fioretti, Dowell, Preckwinkle, Hairston, Lyle, Jackson, Harris, Beale, Pope, Balcer, Cárdenas, Olivo, Burke, Foulkes, Thompson, Thomas, Rugai, Cochran, Brookins, Muñoz, Zalewski, Dixon, Solis, Burnett, E. Smith, Carothers, Reboyras, Suarez, Waguespack, Mell, Austin, Colón, Banks, Mitts, Allen, Laurino, O'Connor, Doherty, Reilly, Daley, Tunney, Levar, Shiller, Schullter, Moore, Stone -- 47.

Nays -- None.

Alderman Carothers moved to reconsider the foregoing vote. The motion was lost.

At this point in the proceedings, the Honorable Richard M. Daley, Mayor, rose and on behalf of the people of Chicago, extended congratulations to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on celebrating their one-hundredth anniversary. Mayor Daley also recognized Sammy W. Lacey, Jr., President of the Chicago South Side Chapter and Ray C. Easley, First Vice President of the West Side Chapter for their dedication and leadership benefiting the people of Chicago. Recognizing the distinguished history and legacy of the N.A.A.C.P. and the men and women whose commitment and sacrifice throughout the past century have forever changed the face of our nation, Mayor Daley lauded their many pioneering achievements and longstanding advocacy concerning employment opportunities, public accommodation and accessible education for all Americans. Challenging the civil injustices and racial discrimination facing many African-Americans, the N.A.A.C.P. remains at the forefront of the civil rights movement, the Mayor observed, and their tireless efforts continue to help people of all communities realize their dreams. After calling the City Council's attention to the presence in the visitors' gallery of various officers, members and supporters of the N.A.A.C.P., Mayor Daley invited Sammy W. Lacey, Jr. and Ray C. Easley to the Mayor's rostrum where he expressed his personal congratulations and presented each with a parchment copy of the congratulatory resolution.

Re: Amending Agreement to Administrative Services Agreement (the "Agreement")

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have acted as counsel for SomerCor 504, Inc., an Illinois not-for-profit corporation ("SomerCor"), in connection with the execution and delivery of the Agreement by and between SomerCor and the City of Chicago, acting by and through its Department of Community Development (the "City"). SomerCor has requested that this opinion be furnished to the City.

In so acting as counsel for SomerCor I have examined:

- (i) an executed original of the Agreement;
- (ii) the Articles of Incorporation, including all amendments thereto, of SomerCor as furnished and certified by the Secretary of State of the State of Illinois;
- (iii) the Bylaws of SomerCor, as certified by the Secretary of SomerCor as of the date hereof; and
- (iv) the Certificate of Good Standing dated _____, issued by the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Illinois, as to the good standing of SomerCor.

In my capacity as counsel, I have also examined such other documents or instruments as I have deemed relevant for the purposes of rendering the opinions hereinafter set forth.

I have also assumed, but have no reason to question, the legal capacity, authority and the genuineness of the signatures of and due and proper execution and delivery by the respective parties other than SomerCor which has made, executed or delivered or will make, execute and deliver the agreements and documents examined by me.

I express no opinion as to (i) the laws of any state or jurisdiction other than the State of Illinois (and any political subdivisions thereof) and the United States of America; and (ii) any matters pertaining or relating to the securities laws of the United States of America, the State of Illinois or any other state.

Based upon and subject to the assumptions and qualifications herein stated, it is my opinion that:

1. SomerCor is a not-for-profit corporation, duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Illinois. SomerCor has made all filings required by the laws of the State of Illinois in respect of its formation and continuing existence, and has all requisite authority to carry on its business and to execute and deliver, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by, the Agreement.
2. The Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of SomerCor, and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of SomerCor, enforceable against SomerCor in accordance with its terms, except to the extent that enforcement of any such terms may be limited by: (a) applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, debt arrangement, insolvency or other similar laws generally affecting creditors' rights; or (b) judicial and public policy limitations upon the enforcement of certain remedies including those which a court of equity may in its discretion decline to enforce.

3. There is no action, suit or proceeding at law or in equity pending, nor to my knowledge threatened, against or affecting SomerCor, before any court or before any governmental or administrative agency, which if adversely determined could materially and adversely affect the ability of SomerCor to perform under the Agreement or any of its business or properties or financial or other conditions.
4. The transactions contemplated by the Agreement are governed by the laws of the State of Illinois.
5. The execution and delivery of the Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby will not constitute:
 - A. a violation or breach of (i) the Articles of Incorporation of SomerCor, (ii) the Bylaws of SomerCor, (iii) any provision of any contract or other instrument to which SomerCor is bound, or (iv) any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation binding on SomerCor, or
 - B. a breach of any of the provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien or encumbrance upon any of the property of SomerCor pursuant to any agreement or other instrument to which SomerCor is a party or by which SomerCor is bound.
6. No action of, or filing with, any governmental or public body is required to authorize, or is otherwise required for the validity of, the execution, delivery and performance of any of the Agreement.

This opinion is furnished for your benefit and may be relied upon by you and any such other party in connection with the Agreement, but may not be delivered to or relied upon by any other person or entity without written consent from the undersigned.

Very truly yours,

Archer/Western Tax Increment Financing

Redevelopment Plan

City Of Chicago, Illinois

January 8, 2009.

I - INTRODUCTION

This report documents the Tax Increment Redevelopment Plan and Program (the "Redevelopment Plan") for the Archer/Western Redevelopment Project Area (the "Project Area"). This Redevelopment Plan has been prepared for the City of Chicago (the "City") by Teska Associates, Inc. The proposed Redevelopment Plan seeks to address a number of problems and needs within the Project Area, and is indicative of a strong commitment and desire on the part of the City to improve and revitalize the Project Area. This document is intended to provide a framework for improvements and reinvestment within the Project Area over the next 23 years. The goal of the Redevelopment Plan is to encourage the redevelopment of existing obsolete and deteriorating buildings and sites for uses which will contribute to the economic strength and vitality of the adjacent community.

In November 2007, the City retained the planning consulting firm of Teska Associates, Inc. ("TAI") along with project team member Valerie S. Kretchmer Associates, Inc. (real estate analysts), to assist the City in the creation of a tax increment financing ("TIF") program for the Project Area. TAI and its project team members conducted field surveys, performed site evaluations, and identified redevelopment opportunities and necessary public improvements. The consultant team also documented the existence of any of the eligibility criteria required for the establishment of a TIF district. These eligibility factors include building age, obsolescence, deterioration of buildings and surface improvements, excessive vacancies, deleterious land use and layout, and lack of community planning. This evidence has allowed TAI to conclude that the Project Area meets the statutory requirements for a Conservation Area and should be designated as a tax increment financing district under the Illinois Tax Increment Allocation Redevelopment Act, 65 ILCS 5/11-74.4-1, et seq., as amended (the "Act").

The Redevelopment Plan summarizes the analyses and findings of the consultants' work, which, unless otherwise noted, is the responsibility of TAI. The City is entitled to rely on the findings and conclusions of this Redevelopment Plan in designating the Project Area as a redevelopment project area under the "Act". TAI has prepared this Redevelopment Plan and the related eligibility study with the understanding that the City would rely on: (a) the findings and conclusions of the Redevelopment Plan and the related eligibility study in proceeding with the designation of the Project Area and the adoption and implementation of the Redevelopment Plan; and (b) the fact that TAI has obtained the necessary information so that the Redevelopment Plan and the related eligibility study will comply with the Act.

PROJECT AREA DESCRIPTION

The Project Area is located approximately three miles southwest of the central business district of the City of Chicago and encompasses portions of several major corridors. The project area includes property on the north and south side of Archer Avenue from Quinn Street on the east to Western Avenue on the west; property on the north and south side of 31st Street from Halsted Street on the east to Pitney Court on the west; property on the north and south side of 35th Street from Ashland Avenue on the east to the CTA railroad ROW on the west; and property on the east and west side of Western Avenue from Bross Avenue on the north to 47th Street on the south. The Stevenson Expressway runs just to the north of the Project Area (see Map 1, page).

The boundaries of the Project Area have been carefully established to include those properties that will gain an immediate and substantial benefit from the proposed redevelopment projects and Redevelopment Plan. The Project Area contains 778 primary buildings and 1,037 parcels, and consists of approximately 413 acres. The Project Area is a mix of residential (RS-1, RS-3), commercial (C1-1, C1-2, C2-2), business (B1-1, B3-1, B3-2), and manufacturing (M1-1, M1-2, M2-3, PMD 8) zoning districts. The Project Area includes a large, greater than 20,000 sq. ft., retail centers, at the southeast corner of Ashland and Archer Avenues.

Land use in the Project Area is primarily composed of residential, mixed use, commercial, and industrial uses. Mixed use is defined as multi-story buildings with retail or office use on the first floor and residential units on the upper floors. The largest concentration of industrial users is located east of Western Avenue from 40th Street to 47th Street. Individual industrial users can also be found throughout the project area adjacent to residences, retail, and mixed use sites. In fact, the majority of the remaining project area is composed of this mix of retailers adjacent to single or multi-family structures, adjacent to mixed use buildings, adjacent to industrial users (See Maps 2-4, Pages). Western Avenue and Archer Avenue are a mix of auto-oriented retailers adjacent to pedestrian-oriented mixed use structures with occasional instances of single family or multi-family residences. 31st Street and 35th Street also have a mix of residential, mixed use and commercial retailers but have a smaller ROW with only one travel lane and one parking lane in each direction. The Archer Avenue ROW has a wider cross-section with two travel lanes in each direction with occasional center left turn lanes. The Western Ave ROW has a boulevard cross-section with two-lanes in each direction on both the east and west sides of the boulevard. McKinley, McGuane, Bosley, Mulberry, and Hoyne parks are part of the Chicago Park District and are located within the Project Area. McKinley Park Library of the Chicago Public Library system is located at the southwest corner of 35th Street and Wolcott Avenue.

Additional research identified 16 different properties listed on the Chicago Historic Resources Survey. Table 2 lists those properties within the Project Area which were identified as 'Orange' rated. These properties add to the unique character of the Project Area and the preservation and reuse of these structures would further the goals and objectives for redevelopment within the Project Area.

The existence of several major vehicular corridors and multiple public and private transportation options provides for convenient Project Area access. The Stevenson Expressway runs from the southwest to the northeast just to the north of the Project Area with access ramps located at Damen Avenue. Archer Avenue is a major diagonal arterial corridor that runs through the Project Area in addition to Western Avenue which is a major north-south arterial corridor. The Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) serves the Project Area with the Orange Line elevated rail line Archer/35th Station located at the northwest corner of Archer Avenue and Leavitt Street. The Orange Line 'L' Western Station is located just south of the Project Area at the intersection of Western Avenue and 49th Street. The Orange Line 'L' Ashland Station is located just outside of the project area to the north of the Archer and Ashland Avenues intersection. The CTA also provides passenger bus service through the Project Area including the #8 bus along Halsted Street, the #9 and #X9 buses along Ashland Avenue, #35 bus along 35th Street, the #39 along Pershing Road and Archer Avenue, the #49 and #X49 buses along Western Avenue, the #50 bus along Damen Avenue, and the #62 along Archer Avenue. The METRA regional commuter rail system does not provide service to the project area.

Over time, as the needs of residents and market trends have changed, the land uses have attempted to meet these needs and stay economically viable. However, the change in development has been sporadic, with some uses adapting to new trends while others attempt to meet the need of the original users even as those customer bases diminished. The result is the current land use pattern. It is a mix of uses which are either incompatible with adjacent uses or are attempting to function on a site not platted for its current use. Due to this haphazard development pattern the Project Area has started to become blighted, and is characterized by underutilized or vacant commercial, mixed use, and industrial property. As Section VII, Findings of Need for Tax Increment Financing, and the Eligibility Study in the Appendix demonstrate, the Project Area has not been subject to appropriate growth and development through investment by private enterprise, and is not reasonably expected to be developed without the direct intervention and leadership of the City. The City believes that tax increment financing will be of substantial benefit in the redevelopment of the Project Area. Tax increment financing will induce private investment that will arrest and reverse the blighting conditions which currently exist.

TAX INCREMENT FINANCING

Tax increment financing is permitted in Illinois under the Act. Only areas which meet certain specifications outlined in the Act are eligible to use this financing mechanism. This document has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Act and can be used as a guide for public and private development in the Project Area. In addition to describing the redevelopment objectives, the Redevelopment Plan sets forth the overall program to be undertaken to achieve these objectives.

The Act permits municipalities to use tax increment financing to improve eligible "blighted" or "conservation" areas in accordance with an adopted redevelopment plan over a period not to exceed 23 years. The municipal cost of certain public improvements and programs can be paid with the revenues generated by increased equalized assessed values of private taxable real estate within a designated project area ("incremental property taxes"). The key to this financing tool is that it allows for the public to make capital investments that are repaid by property taxes from private development investment induced by those public capital investments. Incremental property taxes are taken from the increase in equalized assessed valuation (principally from new private development) generated within the designated project area during the limited term of the redevelopment project. Thus, the project can pay for itself without the need for additional taxes to be levied city-wide, outside the boundaries of the particular project area.

The successful implementation of the Redevelopment Plan requires that the City take full advantage of the real estate tax increment attributed to the Project Area as provided for by the Act. The Project Area would not reasonably be developed and improved without the use of such incremental revenues.

Public and private reinvestment is possible only if Tax Increment Financing ("TIF") is used as authorized by the Act. The revenue generated by the development activity will play a major and decisive role in encouraging private development. Through this Redevelopment Plan, the City will serve as a catalyst for assembling the assets and energies of the private sector in a unified, cooperative, public-private redevelopment effort. Implementation of the Redevelopment Plan and Redevelopment Program (as defined below) will benefit the City, its residents, and all taxing districts in the form of improved economic well-being and the improvement of the community living, working, and learning environment.

THE REDEVELOPMENT PLAN

As evidenced in Redevelopment Plan Section VII "Findings of Need of Tax Increment Financing," the Project Area as a whole has not been subject to growth and development through private investment. Furthermore, it is not reasonable to expect that the Project Area as a whole will be redeveloped without the use of TIF.

The Redevelopment Plan has been formulated in accordance with the provisions of the Act and is intended to guide improvements and activities within the Project Area in order to stimulate private investment in the Project Area. The goal of the City, through implementation of this Redevelopment Plan, is that the entire Project Area be revitalized through a coordinated public and private enterprise effort of reinvestment, rehabilitation, and redevelopment of uses compatible with a strong, stable neighborhood, and that such revitalization occurs:

- On a coordinated, rather than piecemeal basis, to ensure that land use, access and circulation, parking, public services and urban design are functionally integrated and meet present-day principles and standards; and
- On a reasonable, comprehensive, and integrated basis to ensure that the factors leading to blight are eliminated; and
- Within a reasonable and defined time frame so that the Project Area may contribute productively to the economic vitality of the City.

This Redevelopment Plan specifically describes the Project Area and summarizes the factors which qualify the Project Area as a "conservation area" as defined in the Act.

The success of this redevelopment effort will depend on cooperation between the public and private sectors. By means of public investment, the Project Area will become a stable environment for area-wide reinvestment by the private sector. The City will serve as the central force for directing the assets and energies of the private sector to ensure a unified and cooperative public-private redevelopment effort is implemented.

This Redevelopment Plan sets forth the overall "Redevelopment Program" to be undertaken to accomplish the City's above-stated goal. During implementation of the Redevelopment Program, the City may, from time to time: (i) undertake or cause to be undertaken public improvements and activities; and (ii) enter into redevelopment agreements or intergovernmental agreements with private entities or public entities, respectively, in order to construct, rehabilitate, renovate or restore private or public improvements on one or several parcels (collectively referred to as "Redevelopment Projects").

Successful implementation of this Redevelopment Plan requires that the City utilize incremental property taxes and other resources in accordance with the Act to stimulate the comprehensive and coordinated development of the Project Area. Only through the utilization of TIF will the Project Area develop on a comprehensive and coordinated basis, thereby eliminating the existing and threatened conditions which may lead to blight and which have precluded redevelopment of the Project Area by the private sector.

The use of incremental property taxes will permit the City to direct, implement, and coordinate public improvements and activities to stimulate private reinvestment within the Project Area. These improvements, activities, and investments will benefit the City, its residents, and all taxing districts having jurisdiction over the Project Area. These benefits are anticipated to include:

- A strengthening of the economic vitality of the community, arising from new residential and non-residential development;
- An increase in construction and long-term employment opportunities for residents of the Project Area and the City;
- The replacement of unsightly uses, blight, and vacated properties with viable, high-quality developments;
- The elimination of numerous physical impediments within the Project Area on a coordinated and timely basis so as to minimize costs and promote comprehensive, area-wide redevelopment;
- The construction of public improvements which may include, but not limited to, new road surfaces, utilities, sewers, water lines, sidewalks, street lights, landscaping, etc., intended to make the Project Area more attractive to investment;
- The provision of job training services to community members which make the Project Area more attractive to investors and employers; and
- The creation of opportunities for women and minority businesses to share in the redevelopment of the Project Area.

II – LEGAL DESCRIPTION

The legal description of the Project Area can be found in Appendix B.

III – ELIGIBILITY OF THE PROPOSED TIF DISTRICT

Completed by May 1, 2008, a study was undertaken, consistent with the Act and related procedural guidelines, to determine the eligibility of the proposed TIF district. The results of the study indicate that the Project Area meets the Act's requirements for a "conservation area," and is eligible to be designated by the City Council of the City as a "Tax Increment Financing Redevelopment Project Area." The detailed findings of this study are described in Appendix A of this report.

The Project Area qualifies as a conservation area under the Act based on the predominance and extent of parcels exhibiting the following characteristics:

1. Age of structures greater than 35 years old
2. Deterioration of buildings and surface improvements
3. Excessive vacancies
4. Deleterious land use layout
5. Lack of planning

Each of these factors contributes to the eligibility of the Project Area as a conservation area.

IV – REDEVELOPMENT GOALS, OBJECTIVES AND STRATEGIES

In order to establish a workable Redevelopment Plan for the Project Area, it is important to establish both the general, overall goals and specific objectives of the Redevelopment Plan, and to present strategies for meeting these goals and objectives.

GOALS

The overall goals which are specifically directed to this Redevelopment Plan are:

- Reduction or elimination of those conditions which qualify the Project Area as a conservation area;
- Provision of sound economic redevelopment in the Project Area;
- Contribution to the economic well being of the City;
- Creation of strong public and private partnerships to capitalize upon and coordinate all available resources and assets;
- Encouragement of land uses which strengthen the function and appeal of the Project Area for a wide range of activities, including commercial/residential mixed uses, commercial, industrial, public parks, and institutional uses;
- Improvement of the relationship between non-residential land use and the adjacent residences to improve the overall quality of life for residents within and adjacent to the Project Area;

- Improvement of the quality of life in the City by reducing incidences of both physical and economic deterioration within the Project Area;
- Improvement of existing public infrastructure, utilities, public transportation facilities, and roadways to enhance the potential for development and accessibility of redevelopment sites;
- Further the implementation of the recommendations within the June 2006 TAP Remaking an Historic Corridor report;
- Employment of residents living in and around the Project Area in jobs in the Project Area; and
- Creation of an environment within the Project Area that will contribute to the health, safety, and general welfare of the City, that will maintain or enhance the value of properties in and adjacent to the Project Area, and that will stimulate private investment in new construction, expansion, and rehabilitation.

OBJECTIVES

- Fully utilize vacant parcels by assembling and preparing sites for uses conducive to their shape and location;
- Encourage the use, expansion, rehabilitation, new development, and maintenance of the industrial properties to attract industrial development and a wide variety of employment opportunities;
- Upgrade infrastructure throughout the Project Area;
- Maintain and improve the pedestrian environment, access, and connections throughout the Project Area especially in locations where vehicles and pedestrians interact;
- Encourage complete utilization of existing commercial sites before considering commercial development on non-commercially zoned properties;
- Encourage the development and redevelopment of auto-oriented land uses along primary arterial corridors and design site amenities which minimize deleterious impact on adjacent residential areas;
- Encourage the preservation and reuse of historic buildings when possible, including those documented in the Chicago Historic Resources Survey;
- Encourage redevelopment projects to utilize the design guidelines which were developed for Archer Avenue as part of the continuation of the TAP report;
- Encourage the re-establishment of the Archer Avenue corridor identity by promoting upgrades to the street infrastructure, focusing on transit-oriented development, establishing gateways and midpoints, filling in the street wall and advancing other recommendations of the TAP report;

- Ensure transitions which are sensitive to adjacent land uses to minimize conflicts between different land uses; and
- Ensure high quality and harmonious architectural and landscape design throughout the Project Area.

STRATEGIES

Based on an analysis of the existing conditions of the Project Area and the overall goals and specific objectives stated above, the strategies for redevelopment should be to:

- Rehabilitate, where appropriate, existing commercial, industrial, public/institutional, and mixed use structures;
- Assemble and prepare property necessary to attract new investment;
- Undertake appropriate environmental remediation measures on rehabilitation or redevelopment sites, according to customary procedures;
- Establish job readiness and job training programs to provide residents surrounding the Project Area with the skills necessary to secure jobs in the Project Area and in adjacent project areas;
- Coordinate the availability of redevelopment opportunities within this Project Area and other project areas within the city to growing companies that are looking for new development sites ; and
- Repair and replace the infrastructure where needed, including, but not limited to: roads, sidewalks, public utilities, and other public infrastructure; and
- Encourage private investment in the Project Area.

V – FUTURE LAND USE AND REDEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

FUTURE LAND USE

The following land uses are anticipated within the Project Area (see Maps 5-7, Pages):

Residential: While single family and multi-family structures are found scattered throughout the project area, there is one primary location where a significant concentration of good quality residential structures exist. It is envisioned that these residential concentrations remain and, when necessary, rehabbed given their location's character.

The 31st Street corridor is a mix of residential, commercial and mixed uses. However, the western section of the corridor is more residential in nature. To strengthen and maintain the existing character, residential land use is envisioned for this section of the project area. By facilitating the rehabilitation of existing residences, the redevelopment plan can minimize land use conflicts and ensure a high quality of life for residences while maintaining the economic viability of well designed mixed use structures.

Commercial: In order to minimize land use conflicts between residential and non-residential users, the redevelopment plan recommends locating commercial retailers be located along Archer Avenue, primarily on the north side of Archer. It is also recommended that the retail center at Ashland and Archer Avenues be maintained and, when necessary, rehabbed. Given the hours of operation, parking requirements and associated noise and light generated by commercial retailers, land-use conflicts between these types of operations and residents can be minimized by locating them on the north side of Archer Avenue. In addition to reinforcing this character, which is already established by users such as the Jewel supermarket, there are several blocks which should be acquired and redeveloped to provide retail opportunities for area residents. There are several other locations which should also maintain their commercial use given their locations at primary intersections. These locations include the intersection of Halsted and 31st Streets, Ashland Avenue and 35th Street, and the south side of Archer Avenue between Damen Avenue and 35th Street. In addition to the strong economic viability of intersections, these locations have very minimal impact on residential land uses given their distance from such users.

Several vacant parcels of land along Archer Avenue (across from the Archer/35th L station and in the 3300 block) as well as some boarded up buildings along the west side of Archer near 33rd Street are locations where creative site planning and redevelopment can more efficiently utilize the available land. New retail space in the 2500 block of Archer Avenue is renting for $25 per square foot on a triple net basis (tenants are responsible for their pro rata share of real estate taxes, common area maintenance and insurance); one to three stores can be accommodated in the 4,000 square foot strip center.

A vacant grocery store is located on Halsted Street near 31st Street. Replacing it with another regional grocer or a strong independent is an option, or the property could be redeveloped with a family-oriented restaurant/entertainment venue and significant parking to make it an anchor for Bridgeport. This would serve the changing demographics of the neighborhood as well as attracting White Sox fans during baseball season, as well as serving as an anchor for existing and future retailers.

Mixed-Use (Commercial/Residential): The Project Area has an extensive amount of mixed use structures, with retail or office uses on the first floor and residences in the floors above. It is envisioned that the majority of existing corridors maintain and enhance their existing mixed use character. These corridors include Archer Avenue east of Ashland Avenue, the 31st Street corridor, and the 35th Street corridor. Mixed uses are also envisioned to be reinforced on Archer Avenue west of Ashland Avenue and the west side of Western Avenue. The redevelopment of these locations into predominately mixed use areas will help to minimize the land conflicts between existing residences, both within and adjacent to the Project Area, and the commercial land uses. Mixed uses typically can have a harmonious relationship with adjacent residential uses because their commercial activities are more pedestrian oriented and their associated auto-oriented operational activities are much less when compared to standard commercial retailers. Retail/residential structures can be the most effective means of transitioning and buffering larger scale commercial and even industrial uses, to the adjacent residential neighborhoods.

The use of these proposed commercial/retail/residential structures can be an effective way of creating a vital retail market and adding customers for these businesses; in addition, they buffer the commercial development from the adjacent residential neighborhoods. By encouraging reinvestment in existing structures and/or redevelopment of sites at the same scale as existing structures, the Plan will maintain the buffer that protects the residential character of the adjoining community. Several examples of mixed use development (ground floor retail with three stories of residences) are under construction on the west side of Western Avenue in the 4000 and 4100 blocks. These buildings are adjacent to the boundaries of the Project Area and are examples of what could be done within the Project Area. There are a number of auto-related businesses along this stretch of Western Avenue; if they could be relocated nearby (either individually or collectively into a mini auto mall), more opportunities for mixed use development would be possible. A large-scale mixed use development is proposed for the southwest corner of Western Avenue and 36th Street that would include a mix of affordable and market rate housing for families and seniors (for purchase and rental) as well as retail space; exact figures are unavailable as the developer is negotiating with the City.

Industrial Mixed-Use (Commercial/Industrial/Residential): Two locations within the Project Area provide a unique redevelopment opportunity for the City. They are located at 33rd and Justine and at Western Avenue south of 43rd Street. These areas provide a unique set of characteristics for the potential redevelopment as an industrial mixed-use opportunity. Because they provide convenient vehicular access and larger (greater than ½ acre) lot sizes they would tend to be directed towards light industrial or manufacturing use. However they also are in close proximity to retail or residential uses. Promoting highly intensive activities associated with manufacturing is not ideal for the adjacent land uses.

An industrial mixed-use would allow the use of spaces within structures for a small manufacturing operation, such as a small machinists shop. However, the spaces could also be used to provide retail options for small manufacturers. It is also envisioned that these spaces could function as live-work units where a residence would function as an accessory use to the primary industrial or commercial use. This would allow certain specialized manufacturers to operate their start-up business and live in close proximity. A mix of commercial/industrial uses with a potential residential accessory use could provide a unique location in the City to facilitate the development of new types of businesses.

Industrial: In order to maintain the City's ability to provide diverse employment opportunities, the reinvestment and redevelopment of the existing industrial uses and structures on the east side of Western Avenue is planned. Some uses are currently located within PMD #8. To take advantage of this opportunity and fully utilize the existing structures within this section of the project area, it is recommended that all property east of Western Avenue be redeveloped for industrial related uses. Locating industrial uses in this area will also take advantage of the existing buffer that the Western boulevard provides with the residential uses to the west. Any potential land use conflicts can be further minimized by promoting the latest site design techniques for buffering and shielding adjacent non-industrial land uses from the noise, light and other related activity characteristics associated with industrial uses. Given the success of adjacent PMDs and industrial TIFs, the redevelopment plan recommends the project area capitalize on the momentum of the recent industrial reinvestment.

Public Facilities: The existing parks are planned to be maintained and enhanced as they provide multiple benefits to the Project Area and the adjacent communities. In addition to the active recreation areas and programs provided to the residents of the community and the project area employees, the parks provide for much needed open spaces and natural features that help to offset the adjacent commercial and industrial uses. The CTA Archer/35th Orange Line 'L' station is an extremely valuable public asset that is designated to remain and should be enhanced to improve its function and appearance when feasible.

REDEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

The redevelopment of the Project Area will be driven by private reinvestment induced through public assistance and support. In the absence of assistance from the City as provided by the Redevelopment Plan, the private sector is not expected to pursue these opportunities.

Many sites throughout the Project Area may be appropriate for development and rehabilitation. Rehabilitation may involve facade improvements and repairs, as well as improvements to the interior of buildings which are structurally sound but require work to address appearance or safety issues. Other sites may be appropriate for redevelopment. Such sites may include vacant properties, or properties which contain buildings in extremely poor physical condition. Redevelopment of these sites will spur other redevelopment and rehabilitation projects throughout the Project Area.

In addition, public improvements will increase the functionality, appearance, and viability of the Project Area as primary commercial center or node, and a productive industrial area.

VI – REDEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

This section describes the public and private improvements and activities anticipated to be made and undertaken to implement the Redevelopment Plan.

PURPOSE OF THE REDEVELOPMENT PLAN

The Act defines the Redevelopment Plan as: "...the comprehensive program of the municipality for development or redevelopment intended by the payment of redevelopment project costs to reduce or eliminate those conditions the existence of which qualified the redevelopment project area as a 'blighted area' or 'conservation area' or combination thereof or 'industrial park conservation area,' and thereby to enhance the tax bases of the taxing districts which extend into the redevelopment project area" (65 ILCS 5/11-74.4-3(n), as amended).

Further, the Act states that for such areas, "It is hereby found and declared that in order to promote and protect the health, safety, morals, and welfare of the public, that blighted conditions need to be eradicated and conservation measures instituted, and that redevelopment of such areas be undertaken; that to remove and alleviate adverse conditions it is necessary to encourage private investment and restore and enhance the tax base of the taxing districts in such areas by the development or redevelopment of project areas. The eradication of blighted areas and treatment and improvement of conservation areas and industrial park conservation areas by redevelopment projects is hereby declared to be essential to the public interest" (65 ILCS 5/11-74.4-2(b), as amended).

The Future Land Use Plan in Maps 4-6 (See Pages) illustrates proposed land uses. Ultimately, the Redevelopment Plan should help to maintain and enhance a diverse mix of residential, mixed-use, commercial and industrial uses that supply the adjacent community with both employment and retail opportunities.

ELIGIBLE REDEVELOPMENT PROJECT COSTS

The various redevelopment expenditures that are eligible for payment or reimbursement under the Act are reviewed below. Following this review is a list of estimated redevelopment project costs that are deemed to be necessary to implement this Plan (the "Redevelopment Project Costs.")

In the event the Act is amended after the date of the approval of this Plan by the City Council of Chicago to (a) include new eligible redevelopment project costs, or (b) expand the scope or increase the amount of existing eligible redevelopment project costs (such as, for example, by increasing the amount of incurred interest costs that may be paid under 65 ILCS 5/11-74.4-3(q)(11)), this Plan shall be deemed to incorporate such additional, expanded or increased eligible costs as Redevelopment Project Costs under the Plan, to the extent permitted by the Act. In the event of such amendment(s) to the Act, the City may add any new eligible redevelopment project costs as a line item in Table 4 or otherwise adjust the line items in Table 4 without amendment to this Plan, to the extent permitted by the Act. In no instance, however, shall such additions or adjustments result in any increase in the total Redevelopment Project Costs without a further amendment to this Plan.

Redevelopment project costs include the sum total of all reasonable or necessary costs incurred, estimated to be incurred, or incidental to this Plan pursuant to the Act. Such costs may include, without limitation, the following:

- a) Costs of studies, surveys, development of plans, and specifications, implementation and administration of the Redevelopment Plan including but not limited to staff and professional service costs for architectural, engineering, legal, financial, planning or other services (excluding lobbying expenses), provided that no charges for professional services are based on a percentage of the tax increment collected;
- b) The cost of marketing sites within the Project Area to prospective businesses, developers, and investors;
- c) Property assembly costs including, but not limited to, acquisition of land and other property, real or personal, or rights or interests therein, demolition of buildings, site preparation and site improvements that serve as an engineered barrier addressing ground level or below ground environmental contamination, including, but not limited to parking lots and other concrete or asphalt barriers, and the clearing and grading of land;
- d) Costs of rehabilitation, reconstruction, repair, or remodeling of existing public or private buildings, fixtures, and leasehold improvements; and the cost of replacing an existing public building if pursuant to the implementation of a redevelopment project the existing public building is to be demolished to use the site for private investment or devoted to a different use requiring private investment;
- e) Costs of the construction of public works or improvements subject to the limitations in Section 11-74.4-3(q)(4) of the Act;
- f) Costs of job training and retraining projects, including the cost of "welfare to work" programs implemented by businesses located within the Project Area, and as long as such proposals feature a community-based training program which ensures maximum reasonable opportunities for residents of the Bridgeport, McKinley Park, and New City Community Areas with particular attention to the needs of those residents who have previously experienced inadequate employment opportunities and development of job-related skills including residents of public and other subsidized housing and people with disabilities;

- g) Financing costs, including but not limited to, all necessary and incidental expenses related to the issuance of obligations and which may include payment of interest on any obligations issued there under including interest accruing during the estimated period of construction of any redevelopment project for which such obligations are issued, and for a period not exceeding 36 months following completion and including reasonable reserves related thereto;
- h) To the extent the City by written agreement accepts and approves the same, all or a portion of a taxing district's capital costs resulting from the redevelopment project necessarily incurred or to be incurred within a taxing district in furtherance of the objectives of the Redevelopment Plan;
- i) Relocation costs to the extent that the City determines that relocation costs shall be paid or is required to make payment of relocation costs by Federal or state law or by Section 74.4-3(n)(7) of the Act (see "Relocation" section);
- j) Payment in lieu of taxes as defined in the Act;
- k) Costs of job training, retraining, advanced vocational education or career education, including but not limited to, courses in occupational, semi-technical or technical fields leading directly to employment, incurred by one or more taxing districts, provided that such costs; (i) are related to the establishment and maintenance of additional job training, advanced vocational education or career education programs for persons employed or to be employed by employers located in the Project Area; and (ii) when incurred by a taxing district or taxing districts other than the City, are set forth in a written agreement by or among the City and the taxing district or taxing districts, which agreement describes the program to be undertaken including but not limited to, the number of employees to be trained, a description of the training and services to be provided, the number and type of positions available or to be available, itemized costs of the program and sources of funds to pay for the same, and the term of the agreement. Such costs include, specifically, the payment by community college districts of costs pursuant to Sections 3-37, 3-38, 3-40, and 3-40.1 of the Public Community College Act, 110 ILCS 805/3-37, 805/3-38, 805/3-40 and 805/3-40.1, and by school districts of costs pursuant to Sections 10-22.20a and 10-23.3a of the School Code, 105 ILCS 5/10-22.20a and 5/10-23.3a;
- l) Interest cost incurred by a redeveloper related to the construction, renovation or rehabilitation of a redevelopment project provided that:
 - 1. such costs are to be paid directly from the special tax allocation fund established pursuant to the Act;
 - 2. such payments in any one year may not exceed 30 percent of the annual interest costs incurred by the redeveloper with regard to the redevelopment project during that year;
 - 3. if there are not sufficient funds available in the special tax allocation fund to make the payment pursuant to this provision, then the amounts so due shall accrue and be payable when sufficient funds are available in the special tax allocation fund;
 - 4. the total of such interest payments paid pursuant to the Act may not exceed 30 percent of the total:
 - (i) cost paid or incurred by the redeveloper for such redevelopment project;
 - (ii) redevelopment project costs excluding any property assembly costs and any relocation costs incurred by the City pursuant to the Act;

5. for the financing of rehabilitated or new housing for low-income households and very low-income households, as defined in Section 3 of the Illinois Affordable Housing Act, the percentage of 75 percent shall be substituted for 30 percent in subparagraphs 2 and 4 above.
- m) Unless explicitly provided in the Act, the cost of construction of new privately-owned buildings shall not be an eligible redevelopment project cost;
- n) An elementary, secondary, or unit school district's increased costs attributable to assisted housing units will be reimbursed as provided in the Act;
- o) Instead of the eligible costs provided for in (l) 2, 4 and 5 above, the City may pay up to 50% of the cost of construction, renovation, and/or rehabilitation of all low- and very low-income housing units (for ownership or rental) as defined in Section 3 of the Illinois Affordable Housing Act. If the units are part of a residential redevelopment project that includes units not affordable to low- and very low-income households, only the low- and very low-income units shall be eligible for this benefit under the Act; and
- p) The cost of daycare services for children of employees from low-income families working for businesses located within the Project Area and all or portion of the cost of operation of day care centers established by Project Area businesses to serve employees from low-income families working in businesses located in the Project Area. For the purposes of this paragraph, "low-income families" means families whose annual income does not exceed 80% of the City, county or regional median income as determined from time to time by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

If a special service area has been established pursuant to the Special Service Area Tax Act, 35 ILCS 235/0.01 et seq., then any tax increment revenues derived from the tax imposed pursuant to the Special Service Area Tax Act may be used within the redevelopment project area for the purposes permitted by the Special Service Area Tax Act as well as the purposes permitted by the Act.

PROPERTY ACQUISITION AND ASSEMBLY

To meet the goals and objectives of this Redevelopment Plan, the City may acquire and assemble property throughout the Project Area. Land assemblage by the City may be by purchase, exchange, donation, lease, eminent domain, or through the Tax Reactivation Program or other programs and may be for the purpose of (a) sale, lease, or conveyance to private developers, or (b) sale, lease, conveyance or dedication for the construction of public improvements or facilities. Furthermore, the City may require written redevelopment agreements with developers before acquiring any properties. As appropriate, the City may devote acquired property to temporary uses until such property is scheduled for disposition and development.

Map 8, Land Acquisition Overview Map, indicates the parcels currently proposed to be acquired for redevelopment in the Project Area. Table 3 Land Acquisition by Parcel Identification Number and Address portrays the acquisition properties in more detail.

In connection with the City exercising its power to acquire real property not currently identified on Map 8, including the exercise of the power of eminent domain, under the Act in implementing the Redevelopment Plan, the City will follow its customary procedures of having each such acquisition recommended by the Community Development Commission (or any successor commission) and authorized by the City Council of the City. Acquisition of such real property as may be authorized by the City Council does not constitute a change in the nature of this Redevelopment Plan.

For properties identified on Map 8: (1) the acquisition of occupied properties by the City shall commence within four years from the date of the publication of the ordinance approving the Plan; (2) the acquisition of vacant properties by the City shall commence within 10 years from the date of the publication of the ordinance authorizing the acquisition. In either case, acquisition shall be deemed to have commenced with the sending of an offer letter. After the expiration of the applicable period, the City may acquire such property pursuant to this Plan under the Act according to its customary procedures.

PROPERTY DISPOSITION

Property to be acquired by the City as part of the Redevelopment Program may be assembled into appropriate redevelopment sites. As part of the redevelopment process the City may: (i) sell, lease or convey such property for private redevelopment; or (ii) sell, lease or dedicate such property for construction of public improvements or facilities. Terms of conveyance shall be incorporated into appropriate disposition agreements, and may include more specific restrictions than contained in the Redevelopment Plan or in other municipal codes and ordinances governing the use of land or the construction of improvements.

REHABILITATION OF EXISTING PUBLIC OR PRIVATE STRUCTURES

The City of Chicago may provide assistance to encourage rehabilitation of existing public or private structures which will remove conditions which contribute to the decline of the character and value of the district. Appropriate assistance may include, but is not limited to:

- Financial support to private property owners for the restoration and enhancement of existing structures within the Project Area; and
- Improvements to the facade or rehabilitation of public or private buildings.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS

The City of Chicago may install public improvements to enhance the Project Area as a whole, to support the Redevelopment Program, and to serve the needs of Project Area residents. Appropriate public improvements may include, but are not limited to:

- Vacation, removal, resurfacing, widening, reconstruction, construction, and other improvements to streets, alleys, pedestrian ways, and pathways;
- Installation of traffic improvements, viaduct improvements, street lighting and other safety and accessibility improvements;
- Development of parks, playgrounds, plazas, and places for public leisure and recreation;
- Installation, reconstruction, improvement or burial of public or private utilities;
- Construction of public buildings;
- Beautification, lighting and signage of public properties;
- Maintenance of rights-of-way in privately owned properties;
- Transit and transit related improvements;
- Demolition of obsolete or hazardous structures; and
- Improvements to publicly owned land or buildings to be sold or leased.

Recommended public improvements in the Project Area are listed in Section V, Future Land Use and Redevelopment Activities. The City may determine at a later date that certain listed improvements are no longer needed or appropriate and may remove them from the list, or may add new improvements to the list.

CAPITAL COSTS OF TAXING DISTRICTS

The City may reimburse all or a portion of the costs incurred by certain taxing districts in the furtherance of the objectives of this Redevelopment Plan.

RELOCATION

In the event that the implementation of the Redevelopment Plan results in the removal of residential housing units in the Project Area occupied by low-income households or very low-income households, or the displacement of low-income households or very low-income households from such residential housing units, such households shall be provided affordable housing and relocation assistance not less than that which would be provided under the federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 and the regulations thereunder, including the eligibility criteria. Affordable housing may be either existing or newly constructed housing. The City shall make a good faith effort to ensure that this affordable housing is located in or near the Project Area.

As used in the above paragraph "low-income households", "very low-income households" and "affordable housing" shall have the meanings set forth in Section 3 of the Illinois Affordable Housing Act, 310 ILCS 65/3. As of the date of this Plan, these statutory terms are defined as follows: (i) "low-income household" means a single person, family or unrelated persons living together whose adjusted income is more than 50 percent but less than 80 percent of the median income of the area of residence, adjusted for family size, as such adjusted income and median income are determined from time to time by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") for purposes of Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937; (ii) "very low-income household" means a single person, family or unrelated persons living together whose adjusted income is not more than 50 percent of the median income of the area of residence, adjusted for family size, as so determined by HUD; and (iii) "affordable housing" means residential housing that, so long as the same is occupied by low-income households or very low-income households, requires payment of monthly housing costs, including utilities other than telephone, of no more than 30 percent of the maximum allowable income for such households, as applicable.

ESTIMATED PROJECT COSTS

Table 4 outlines the estimated costs of the Redevelopment Program.

Table 4: Estimated Redevelopment Project Costs

ELIGIBLE EXPENSE	ESTIMATED COST

Job Training, Retraining, Welfare-to-Work	$3,000,000
Relocation Costs	$6,000,000
Day Care	$600,000
Interest Costs	$2,500,000
Total Redevelopment Costs ^{(3) (4) (5) (7)}	$100,000,000 ⁽⁶⁾

Notes:

1. This category may also include paying for or reimbursing (i) an elementary, secondary or unit school district's increased costs attributed to assisted housing units, and (ii) capital costs of taxing districts impacted by the redevelopment of the Project Area. As permitted by the Act, to the extent the City by written agreement accepts and approves the same, the City may pay, or reimburse all, or a portion of a taxing district's capital costs resulting from a redevelopment project necessarily incurred or to be incurred within a taxing district in furtherance of the objectives of the Plan.
2. Public improvements may also include capital costs of taxing districts. Specifically, public improvements as identified in the Redevelopment Plan and as allowable under the Act may be made to property and facilities owned or operated by the City or other public entities. As provided in the Act, to the extent the City by written agreement accepts and approves the same, all or a portion of a taxing district's capital costs resulting from the redevelopment project necessarily incurred or to be incurred within a taxing district in furtherance of the objectives of the Redevelopment Plan.
3. The total Estimated Redevelopment Project Costs provides an upper limit on expenditures and adjustments may be made in line items without amendment to this Redevelopment Plan.
4. Total Redevelopment Project Costs exclude any additional financing costs, including any interest expense, capitalized interest and costs associated with optional redemptions. These costs are subject to prevailing market conditions and are in addition to Total Redevelopment Project Costs.
5. The amount of the Total Redevelopment Project Costs that can be incurred in the Project Area will be reduced by the amount of redevelopment project costs incurred in contiguous redevelopment project areas, or those separated from the Project Area only by a public right-of-way, that are permitted under the Act to be paid, and are paid, from incremental property taxes generated in the Project Area, but will not be reduced by the amount of redevelopment project costs incurred in the Project Area which are paid from incremental property taxes generated in contiguous redevelopment project areas or those separated from the Project Area only by a public right-of-way.
6. Increases in estimated Total Redevelopment Project Costs of more than five percent, after adjustment for inflation from the date of the Plan adoption, are subject to the Plan amendment procedures as provided under the Act.
7. Additional funding from other sources such as federal, state, county, or local grant funds may be utilized to supplement the City's ability to finance Redevelopment Project Costs identified above.

JOB TRAINING

Separate or combined programs designed to increase the skills of the labor force to meet employers' hiring needs and to take advantage of the employment opportunities within the Project Area may be implemented.

DEVELOPER INTEREST COSTS

Funds may be provided to redevelopers for a portion of interest costs incurred by a redeveloper related to the construction, renovation, or rehabilitation of a redevelopment project provided that:

1. Such costs are to be paid directly from the special tax allocation fund established pursuant to the Act;
2. Such payments in any one year may not exceed 30% of the annual interest costs incurred by the redeveloper with respect to the redevelopment project during that year.

SOURCES OF FUNDS

The Act provides methods by which municipalities can finance eligible redevelopment project costs with incremental real estate tax revenues. Incremental tax revenue is derived from the increase in the current equalized assessed valuation (EAV) of real property within the Project Area over and above the certified initial EAV of the real property. Any increase in EAV is then multiplied by the current tax rate, resulting in the tax increment revenue. A decline in current EAV does not result in a negative real estate tax increment.

Funds necessary to pay for Redevelopment Project Costs and secure municipal obligations issued for such costs are to be derived primarily from Incremental Property Taxes. Other sources of funds which may be used to pay for Redevelopment Project Costs or secure municipal obligations are land disposition proceeds, federal, state, county, or local grants, investment income, private financing and other legally permissible funds the City may deem appropriate. The City may incur redevelopment project costs which are paid for from funds of the City other than incremental taxes, and the City may then be reimbursed from such costs from incremental taxes. Also, the City may permit the utilization of guarantees, deposits and other forms of security made available by private sector developers. Additionally, the City may utilize revenues, other than State sales tax increment revenues, received under the Act from one redevelopment project area for eligible costs in another redevelopment project area that is either contiguous to, or is separated only by a public right-of-way from, the redevelopment project area from which the revenues are received.

The Project Area may be contiguous to, or separated only by a public right-of-way from, other redevelopment project areas created under the Act. The City may utilize net incremental property taxes received from the Project Area to pay eligible Redevelopment Project Costs, or obligations issued to pay such costs, in other contiguous redevelopment project areas or other project areas separated only by a public right-of-way, and vice versa. The amount of revenue from the Project Area, made available to support such contiguous redevelopment project areas, or those separated only by a public right-of-way, when added to all amounts used to pay eligible redevelopment project costs within the Project Area, shall not at any time exceed the total Redevelopment Project Costs described in this Redevelopment Plan.

The Project Area may become contiguous to, or be separated only by a public right-of-way from, redevelopment project areas created under the Industrial Jobs Recovery Law, 65 ILCS 5/11-74.6-1, et seq., as amended. If the City finds that the goals, objectives and financial success of such contiguous redevelopment project areas or those separated only by a public right-of-way are interdependent with those of the Project Area, the City may determine that it is in the best interests of the City and in furtherance of the purposes of the Redevelopment Plan that net revenues from the Project Area be made available to support any such redevelopment project areas, and vice versa. The City therefore proposes to utilize net incremental revenues received from the Project Area to pay eligible redevelopment project costs (which are eligible under the Industrial Jobs Recovery Law referred to above) in any such areas, and vice versa. Such revenues may be transferred or loaned between the Project Area and such areas. The amount of revenue from the Project Area so made available, when added to all amounts used to pay eligible redevelopment project costs within the Project Area or other areas as described in the preceding paragraph, shall not at any time exceed the total Redevelopment Project Costs described in Table 4 of this Redevelopment Plan.

In the event that adequate funds are not available as anticipated from aforementioned sources, the City may utilize its taxing power to sustain the Redevelopment Project or repay obligations issued in connection therewith, to be reimbursed over time, if possible, from tax increment revenues.

NATURE AND TERM OF OBLIGATIONS TO BE ISSUED

The City may issue obligations secured by Incremental Property Taxes pursuant to Section 11-74.4-7 of the Act. To enhance the security of a municipal obligation, the City may pledge its full faith and credit through the issuance of general obligation bonds. Additionally, the City may provide other legally permissible credit enhancements to any obligations issued pursuant to the Act.

The redevelopment project shall be completed, and all obligations issued to finance redevelopment costs shall be retired, no later than December 31 of the year in which the payment to the City Treasurer as provided in the Act is to be made with respect to ad valorem taxes levied in the twenty-third calendar year following the year in which the ordinance approving the Project Area was originally adopted, assuming the ordinance is adopted in 2009, December 31, 2033. Also, the final maturity date of any such obligations which are issued may not be later than 20 years from their respective dates of issue. One or more series of obligations may be sold at one or more times in order to implement this Plan. Obligations may be issued on parity or subordinated basis.

In addition to paying Redevelopment Project Costs, Incremental Property Taxes may be used for the scheduled retirement of obligations, mandatory or optional redemptions, establishment of debt service reserves and bond sinking funds. To the extent that Incremental Property Taxes are not needed for these purposes, and are not otherwise required, pledged, earmarked or otherwise designated for the payment of Redevelopment Project Costs, any excess Incremental Property Taxes shall then become available for distribution annually to taxing districts having jurisdiction over the Project Area in the manner provided by the Act.

One or more issues of obligations may be sold at one or more times in order to implement the Redevelopment Plan, as amended, and as it may be amended in the future. Obligations may be issued on a parity or subordinate basis.

The City may, by ordinance, in addition to obligations secured by the tax allocation fund, pledge for a period not greater than the term of the obligations any part or any combination of the following:

- Net revenues of all or part of any redevelopment project;
- Taxes levied and collected on any or all property in the City;
- The full faith and credit of the City;
- A mortgage on part or all of a redevelopment project; and
- Any other taxes or anticipated receipts that the City may lawfully pledge.

EQUALIZED ASSESSED VALUATION

The purpose of identifying the most recent equalized assessed valuation ("EAV") of the Project Area is to provide an estimate of the initial EAV, which the Cook County Clerk will certify for the purpose of annually calculating the incremental EAV and incremental property taxes of the Project Area. The most recent (2007) equalized assessed valuation (EAV) of all the taxable parcels in the Project Area is approximately $117,663,903. This EAV is based on 2007 EAV figures collected by Teska Associates, Inc. and is subject to verification by the County Clerk. After verification, the final figure shall be certified by the County Clerk of Cook County, Illinois and shall become the Certified Initial EAV from which all incremental property taxes in the Project Area will be calculated by Cook County. The Plan has utilized the EAVs for the 2007 tax year.

Upon completion of anticipated private development of the Project Area, it is anticipated that the equalized assessed valuation will be approximately $234 million. The calculation assumes that assessments appreciate at a rate of 3% per year calculated as 9% every three years according to the triennial reassessment cycle of the Cook County Assessor. Other new projects, rehabilitation of existing buildings, and appreciation of real estate values may result in substantial additional increases in equalized assessed valuation.

VII – FINDINGS OF NEED FOR TAX INCREMENT FINANCING

Pursuant to the Act, TAI makes the following findings:

PROJECT AREA NOT SUBJECT TO GROWTH

Although the City and its surrounding regional area, as a whole, have evidenced growth, the Project Area has not been subject to appropriate growth and redevelopment through investment by private enterprise, and would not reasonably be anticipated to be developed without the adoption of the Redevelopment Plan.

The lack of growth in the Project Area is supported by the following:

Presence of Blighting Factors

Lack of investment is evidenced by the widespread extent and distribution of blighting factors, including deterioration, vacancies, and code violations. As elaborated upon in the Eligibility Study

(Appendix A), the presence of these factors to such a significant degree illustrates that appropriate private investment, particularly for maintenance and improvements to property, has not been undertaken in the Project Area.

Lack of Building Permit Activity Representing Substantial Investment

During the period from January 2004 to July 2008, 307 permits were issued in the Project Area at a total value of $8,675,741. Over 11% of this investment is represented by one project while 188 of the 307 (61%) permits are for basic maintenance and to address code violations. This level of building activity does not represent a sign of economic well-being through private investment. More than 60% of the activity within the last 4 ½ years is merely to bring properties up to code or maintain their compliance status. Only 52 of the 307 permits issued (17%) represent an investment by properties owners within the community. This represents barely 1 property owner per month over 4 ½ years in a Project Area of 1,037 parcels.

Table 5: Building Permit Activity, January 2004 to July 2008

Type of Permit	Number of Permits	Value of Permits	Value as a Percent of Total Permits
New Construction	11	$4,484,500	51.7%
Demolition	10	179,100	2.1%
Renovation/Alteration	41	$2,391,100	27.6%
Wiring/Elevator/Equipment Replacement	97	$409,341	4.7%
Violation Repairs	91	$1,121,300	12.9%
Signage	57	$90,400	1.0%
Total	307	$8,865,741	100%

Specifically, as depicted in Table 5 during the 4 1/2 year period from January 2004 to July 2008, only 11 permits were issued for eight new construction projects. These permits, which represent significant private investment, affected only 0.001% of the 1,037 parcels in the Project Area. The remaining permits were for general maintenance or in response to building code violations.

As Table 5 illustrates, only 8 out of the 1,037 properties in the Project Area had any kind of substantial private investment through new construction. While over 27% of the building permit values went towards renovation, this affected less than 4% of the 1,037 Project Area parcels. The increase in value to properties arising from new construction, additions, or substantial renovations was isolated on a small number of properties and is not uniformly distributed throughout the Project Area.

Less than 13% of the building permit values went towards addressing building code violations, affected less than 9% of the Project Area parcels. These simple repairs and maintenance activities are unlikely to increase the value of property. In general, the building permit data suggests that private investment undertaken in the community is not as substantial, or widespread, as would be anticipated in a strong, stable portion of the City.

VIII – FINANCIAL IMPACT OF REDEVELOPMENT

Without the adoption of the Redevelopment Plan and Program, the Project Area is not reasonably expected to be redeveloped by private enterprise. In the absence of City-sponsored redevelopment, there is a prospect that blighting factors will continue to exist and spread, and the Project Area on the whole, in addition to adjacent properties, will become less attractive for the maintenance and improvement of existing buildings and sites. Erosion of the assessed valuation of property in and outside of the Project Area could lead to a reduction of real estate tax revenue to all taxing districts.

Implementation of the Redevelopment Project is expected to have significant short and long term positive financial impacts on the taxing districts affected by this Redevelopment Plan. In the short term, the City's effective use of tax increment financing can be expected to stabilize existing assessed values in the Project Area, thereby stabilizing the existing tax base for local taxing agencies. In the long term, after the completion of all redevelopment improvements and activities, the completion of redevelopment projects and the payment of all Redevelopment Project Costs and municipal obligations, the taxing districts will benefit from any enhanced tax base which results from the increase in EAV caused by the Redevelopment Program.

The Act requires an assessment of any financial impact of the Project Area on, or any increased demand for services from, any taxing district affected by the Plan and a description of any program to address such financial impacts or increased demand. The City intends to monitor development in the Project Area and with the cooperation of the other affected taxing districts will attempt to ensure that any increased needs are addressed in connection with any particular development.

DEMAND ON TAXING DISTRICT SERVICES

The following taxing districts presently levy taxes against properties located within the Project Area:

Cook County - The County has principal responsibility for the protection of persons and property, the provision of public health services and the maintenance of County highways.

Cook County Forest Preserve District - The Forest Preserve District is responsible for acquisition, restoration and management of lands for the purpose of protecting and preserving open space in the City and County for the education, pleasure and recreation of the public.

Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago - This district provides the main trunk lines for the collection of waste water from cities, villages and towns, and for the treatment and disposal thereof.

City of Chicago - The City is responsible for the provision of a wide range of municipal services, including: police and fire protection; capital improvements and maintenance; water supply and distribution; sanitation service; building, housing and zoning codes, etc.

Board of Education of the City of Chicago and Associated Agencies - General responsibilities of the Board of Education include the provision, maintenance and operations of educational facilities and the provision of educational services for kindergarten through twelfth grade.

Chicago Community College District #508 - This district is a unit of the State of Illinois' system of public community colleges, whose objective is to meet the educational needs of residents of the City and other students seeking higher education programs and services.

Chicago Park District - The Park District is responsible for the provision, maintenance and operation of park and recreational facilities throughout the City and for the provision of recreation programs.

The replacement of vacant and underutilized property with non-residential or residential development may cause increased demand for services and/or capital improvements to be provided by Cook County, the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago, the City of Chicago, the Board of Education of the City of Chicago, Chicago Community College District #508, and the Chicago Park District. The estimated nature of these increased demands for services on these taxing districts, and the activities to address increased demand, are described below.

Cook County - The replacement of vacant and underutilized property with non-residential or residential development may cause increased demand for the services and programs provided by the County. Because proposed mixed use development is limited and any new residents in the Project Area are likely to relocate from other portions of the County, the increase in demand is not anticipated to be significant. A portion of Redevelopment Project Costs may be allocated to assist in the provision of such increased services, as provided in the Act and in this Redevelopment Plan.

Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago - The replacement of vacant and underutilized property with new development may cause increased demand for the services and/or capital improvements provided by the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District. As it is expected that any increase in demand for treatment and sanitary and storm sewage associated with the Project Area will be minimal, no assistance is proposed for the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District.

City of Chicago - The replacement of vacant and underutilized property with new development may cause increased demand for the services and programs provided by the City, including police protection, fire protection, sanitary collection, recycling, etc. Such increases in demand may be significant. A portion of Redevelopment Project Costs may be allocated to assist in the provision of such increased services, as provided in the Act and in this Redevelopment Plan.

Board of Education of the City of Chicago and Associated Agencies - The replacement of vacant and underutilized properties with new residential and/or mixed-use development may result in additional school-aged children in the Project Area, and may affect the demand for educational services and/or capital improvements to be provided by the Board of Education. The increased number of students may be significant. The City will work with the Board of Education and its associate agencies to address any increase that does arise.

Chicago Community College District #508 - The replacement of vacant and underutilized properties with mixed-use development may result in an increase in population within the Project Area. Therefore, demand for educational services and programs provided by the community college district may increase, although this change is not anticipated to be significant. The City will work with the Community College District #508 to address any increase that does arise.

Chicago Park District - The replacement of underutilized properties with non-residential and residential development may increase the population within the Project Area, so that demand for recreational services and programs provided by the Park District may increase. Although this increase is not expected to be significant, the City will work with the Chicago Park District to address any increase that does arise.

This proposed program to address increased demand for services or capital improvements provided by some or all of the impacted taxing districts is contingent upon: (i) the Redevelopment Program occurring as anticipated in the Redevelopment Plan, (ii) the Redevelopment Program resulting in demand for services sufficient to warrant the allocation of Redevelopment Project Costs, and (iii) the generation of sufficient incremental property taxes to pay for the Redevelopment Project Costs listed above. In the event that the Redevelopment Program fails to materialize, or involves a different scale of development than that currently anticipated, the City may revise this proposed program to address increased demand, to the extent permitted by the Act, without amending this Redevelopment Plan.

IX – OTHER ELEMENTS OF THE REDEVELOPMENT PLAN

CONFORMANCE WITH LAND USES APPROVED BY THE PLANNING COMMISSION OF THE CITY

The Redevelopment Plan and Project described herein includes land uses which have been approved by the Chicago Plan Commission.

DATE OF COMPLETION

The Redevelopment Project shall be completed, and all obligations issued to finance redevelopment costs shall be retired, no later than December 31 of the year in which the payment to the City Treasurer as provided in the Act is to be made with respect to ad valorem taxes levied in the twenty-third calendar year following the year in which the ordinance approving this Project Area is adopted (assuming the ordinance is adopted in 2009, December 31, 2033).

IMPLEMENTATION SCHEDULE

A phased implementation strategy will be utilized to achieve comprehensive and coordinated redevelopment of the Project Area. It is anticipated that City expenditures for Redevelopment Project Costs will be carefully staged on a reasonable and proportional basis to coincide with Redevelopment Program expenditures by private developers and the receipt of incremental property taxes by the City. The estimated date for completion of Redevelopment Projects is no later than December 31, 2032.

PROVISION FOR AMENDING THE REDEVELOPMENT PLAN

The Redevelopment Plan may be amended pursuant to provisions of the Act.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION AND FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

The City is committed to and will affirmatively implement the following principles with respect to this Redevelopment Plan:

1. The assurance of equal opportunity in all personnel and employment actions, with respect to the Redevelopment Program, including, but not limited to: hiring, training, transfer, promotion, discipline, fringe benefits, salary, employment working conditions, termination, etc., without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, military discharge status, source of income, or housing status.
2. Redevelopers must meet City of Chicago's standards for participation of 24 percent Minority Business Enterprises and 4 percent Woman Business Enterprises and the City Resident Construction Worker Employment Requirement as required in redevelopment agreements.
3. This commitment to affirmative action and nondiscrimination will ensure that all members of the protected groups are sought out to compete for all job openings and promotional opportunities.
4. Redevelopers will meet City standards for any applicable prevailing wage rate as ascertained by the Illinois Department of Labor to all project employees.

In order to implement these principles, the City shall require and promote equal employment practices and affirmative action on the part of itself and its contractors and vendors. In particular, parties engaged by the City shall be required to agree to the principles set forth in this section.

With respect to the public/private development's internal operations, both entities will pursue employment practices which provide equal opportunity to all people regardless of gender, color, race or creed, etc. Neither party will countenance discrimination against any employee or applicant because of gender, marital status, national origin, age or the presence of physical handicaps. These nondiscriminatory practices will apply to all areas of employment, including hiring, upgrading and promotions, terminations, compensation, benefit programs and educational opportunities.

Anyone involved with employment or contracting activities for this Redevelopment Plan and Program will be responsible for conformance with this policy and the compliance requirements of applicable city, state, and Federal laws and regulations.

The City and the private developers involved in the implementation of the Redevelopment Plan and Program will adopt a policy of equal employment opportunity and will include or require the inclusion of this statement in all contracts and subcontracts at any level for the project being undertaken in the Project Area. Any public/private partnership established for the development project in the Project Area will seek to ensure and maintain a working environment free of harassment, intimidation, and coercion at all sites and facilities at which employees are assigned to work. It shall be specifically ensured that all on-site supervisory personnel are aware of and carry out the obligation to maintain such a working environment, with specific attention to minority and/or female individuals. The partnership will utilize affirmative action to ensure that business opportunities are provided and that job applicants are employed and treated in a nondiscriminatory manner.

The City shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to exempt certain small business, residential property owners, and developers from the above.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING

The City requires that developers who receive TIF assistance for market rate housing set aside 20% of the units to meet affordability criteria established by the City's Department of Housing or any successor agency. Generally, this means the affordable for-sale units should be priced at a level that is affordable to persons earning no more than 100% of the area median income, and affordable rental units should be affordable to persons earning no more than 60% of the area median income.

ENVIRONMENTAL STANDARDS

The City requires that developers who receive TIF assistance must comply with the City of Chicago environmental standards as per Department of Planning and Development policy.

INTERGOVERNMENTAL AGREEMENTS AND REDEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS

The City may enter into redevelopment agreements or intergovernmental agreements with private entities or public entities to construct, rehabilitate, renovate or restore private or public improvements on one or several parcels (collectively referred to as "Redevelopment Projects").

HOUSING IMPACT

As set forth in the Act, if the redevelopment plan for a redevelopment project area would result in the displacement of residents from 10 or more inhabited residential units, or if the redevelopment project area contains 75 or more inhabited residential units and a municipality is unable to certify that no displacement will occur, the municipality must prepare a housing impact study and incorporate the study in the redevelopment project plan.

The Project Area contains 674 inhabited residential units. The Plan provides for the development or redevelopment of several portions of the Project Area that may contain occupied residential units. As a result, it is possible that by implementation of this Plan, the displacement of residents from 10 or more inhabited residential units could occur.

The results of the housing impact study section are described in a separate report which presents certain factual information required by the Act. The report, prepared by TAI, is entitled "Archer/Western Redevelopment Plan Housing Impact Study," and is attached as Appendix C to this Plan.

Plan Eligibility Findings.*

INTRODUCTION

In order to establish a Tax Increment Financing (TIF) Redevelopment Project Area the Tax Increment Allocation Redevelopment Act, 65 ILCS 5/11 - 74.4 - 1, et seq., as amended (the "Act"), identifies specific characteristics which must be identified and documented. A Redevelopment Project Area is defined as:

"...an area designated by the municipality, which is not less in the aggregate than 1 ½ acres and in respect to which the municipality has made a finding that there exist conditions which cause the area to be classified as an industrial park conservation area, or a blighted area, or a conservation area, or a combination of both blighted areas and conservation areas" (65 ILCS 5/11-74.4-3(p)).

Section 5/11-74.4-3(b) defines a "conservation area" as:

"...any improved area within the boundaries of a Redevelopment Project Area located within the territorial limits of the municipality in which 50% or more of the structures in the area have an age of 35 years or more. Such an area is not yet a blighted area, but because of a combination of three or more of the following factors is detrimental to the public safety, health, morals, or welfare and such an area may become a blighted area."

Therefore, in order to qualify as a "conservation area," an improved area must demonstrate the presence of at least three (3) of the following factors named by the Act and each must be reasonably distributed throughout the designated Redevelopment Project Area: dilapidation; obsolescence; deterioration; presence of structures below minimum code standards; illegal use of individual structures; excessive vacancies; lack of ventilation, light, or sanitary facilities; inadequate utilities; excessive land coverage and overcrowding of structures and community facilities; deleterious land use or layout; lack of community planning; need for environmental clean-up; and the lag in growth of the equalized assessed value ("EAV") for the Project Area in comparison to the remaining areas of the City.

Determination of eligibility of the Archer/Western Redevelopment Project Area (the "Project Area") for tax increment financing is based on a comparison of data gathered through field observation, document and archival research, and information provided by Cook County and the City of Chicago (the "City") against the eligibility criteria set forth in the Act. The eligibility criteria identified as part of the Act are the basis for the evaluation.

This report summarizes the analyses and findings of the consultants' work, which is the responsibility of Teska Associates, Inc. (TAI). TAI has prepared this report with the understanding that the City would rely on: (i) the findings and conclusions of this report in proceeding with the designation of the Project Area as a Redevelopment Project Area under the Act; and (ii) the fact that TAI has obtained the necessary information to conclude that the Project Area can be designated as a Redevelopment Project Area in compliance with the Act.

The Project Area is eligible for designation as a "conservation area" based on the predominance and extent of parcels exhibiting the following characteristics: age, deterioration of buildings and surface improvements, excessive building vacancies, deleterious land use layout, and lack of community planning. Under the Act, at least 50% of the buildings in the Project Area must be 35 years of age or more, and three of 13 listed conservation area factors must be present in and reasonably distributed throughout the Project Area for it to be considered a conservation area. The Project Area is characterized by four of the factors to a major extent. The major factors are distributed throughout the Project Area.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROJECT AREA

The Project Area is located approximately three miles southwest of the central business district of the City of Chicago and encompasses portions of several major corridors. The project area includes property on the north and south side of Archer Avenue from Quinn Street on the east to Western Avenue on the west; property on the north and south side of 31st Street from Halsted Street on the east to Pitney Court on the west; property on the north and south side of 35th Street from Ashland Avenue on the east to the CTA railroad ROW on the west; and property on the east and west side of Western Avenue from Bross Avenue on the north to 47th Street on the south. The Stevenson Expressway runs just to the north of the Project Area.

The boundaries of the Project Area have been carefully established to include those properties that will gain an immediate and substantial benefit from the proposed redevelopment projects and Redevelopment Plan. The Project Area contains 778 primary buildings and 1,037 parcels, and consists of approximately 413 acres. The 778 buildings consist of 587 principal use buildings and 191 accessory structures such as garages. Figure A delineates the precise boundaries of the Project Area.

ELIGIBILITY FINDINGS

TAI conducted a field survey of the subject properties was completed by May 1, 2008. Based on an inspection of the improvements and property, field notes were taken which recorded the condition of all buildings and parcels. Photographs further document the observed conditions. Additional research was conducted at the Cook County Clerk's Office and the City Building Department.

For the purposes of this study, a factor is considered to be "major" if the factor occurred on a relatively large number of properties, buildings, or blocks. Alternatively, a factor which affects a relatively smaller proportion of properties may also be major, if the effects of the factor are highly visible, and exert a significant depressing or blighting effect upon neighboring properties and the entire Project Area. "Minor" factors, while affecting fewer properties than major factors, also exert a negative effect on the Project Area. Overall, the combination of major and minor blighting factors contributes to a blighted appearance and inhibits investment in the Project Area.

AGE OF BUILDINGS

The characteristic of age presumes the existence of problems or limiting conditions resulting from normal and continuous use of structures and exposure to the elements over a period of many years.

As a rule, older buildings or improvements typically exhibit more problems than buildings constructed in later years because of longer periods of active use (wear and tear) and the impact of time, temperature and moisture. Additionally, older buildings tend not to be well suited for modern-day uses because of contemporary space and development standards.

Based on the observed style and construction methods of the buildings within the Project Area and information provided by the Cook County Assessor's Office, 509 of 587 principal use buildings (87%) are more than 35 years old. Over 65% of all buildings are more than 35 years old. Age is also widely distributed throughout the area as can be seen on Figure B which illustrates the parcels on which at least 50% of all buildings are more than 35 years of age. As required, more than 50% of the structures within the Project Area are more than 35 years of age. Age is therefore a major contributing factor in the designation of the Project Area as a conservation area.

DILAPIDATION

Dilapidation refers to an advanced state of disrepair of buildings or improvements or the neglect of necessary repairs, causing the building or improvement to fall into a state of decay. At a minimum, dilapidated buildings should be those with critical defects in primary structural components (roof, bearing walls, floor structure, and foundation), building systems (heating, ventilation, lighting, and plumbing), and secondary structural components in such combination and extent that: (i) major repair is required or; (ii) the defects are so serious and extensive that the buildings must be removed.

Since the extent to which dilapidation exists in the project area is minimal and does not appear to be affecting the level of investment in adjacent property, dilapidation is not a contributing factor toward the Project Area's designation as a conservation area.

OBSOLESCENCE

According to the Act, an obsolete building or improvement is one which is in the condition or process of falling into disuse. The structures and/or site conditions have become ill suited for the original use. Obsolescence, as a factor, should be based upon the documented presence and reasonable distribution of buildings and other site improvements exhibiting conditions of falling into disuse. The following identify more specific sub-categories of obsolescence.

Functional Obsolescence

Structures are typically built for specific uses or purposes with design, location, height, and space arrangement are each intended for a specific occupancy at a given time. Buildings are obsolete when they contain characteristics or deficiencies which limit the re-use and marketability of such buildings. The characteristics may include loss in value to a property resulting from an inherent deficiency existing from poor or out-dated design or layout, improper orientation of building on site, etc., which detracts from the overall usefulness or desirability of a property. Obsolescence in such buildings is typically difficult and expensive to correct.

Obsolete Site Improvements

Site improvements, including sewer and water lines, public utility lines (gas, electric and telephone), roadways, parking areas, parking structures, sidewalks, curbs and gutters, lighting, etc., may also evidence obsolescence in terms of their relationship to contemporary development standards for such improvements. Factors of this obsolescence may include inadequate utility capacities, outdated designs, etc.

Obsolete Platting

Obsolete platting would include parcels of limited or narrow size and configuration or parcels of irregular size or shape that would be difficult to develop on a planned basis and in a manner compatible with contemporary standards and requirements. Platting that has created inadequate right-of-way widths for streets, alleys and other public rights-of-way or which omitted easements for public utilities, should also be considered obsolete.

While there are structures in several areas that are not being used for their original use, they have been adapted and reused for other uses. The most common instance is the reuse of industrial structures for residential or commercial uses. In general, the platting within the project area has resulted in parcels that can still be adequately utilized for mixed-use or pedestrian-oriented commercial uses. Consequently, obsolescence does not exist in the Project Area to a major extent and is therefore not a contributing eligibility factor.

DETERIORATION

Deterioration refers to physical deficiencies or disrepair in buildings or site improvements requiring treatment or repair.

Deterioration of Buildings

Buildings in a state of deterioration exhibit defects which are not easily correctable in the course of normal maintenance. Such buildings may be classified as deteriorating or in an advanced stage of deterioration, depending upon the degree or extent of defects. This would include buildings with major defects in the secondary building components (e.g., doors, windows, porches, gutters and downspouts, fascia materials, etc.), and major defects in primary building components (e.g., foundations, frames, roofs, etc.), respectively.

Deterioration occurs in 202 of the 587 principal buildings (34%) in the Project Area. Deteriorating conditions found within the Project Area included defects in doors, windows and fascia materials and defects in roofs. Such buildings create a visible environment of deterioration throughout the Project Area, causing owners of other nearby properties to be less inclined to invest in their own buildings. Thus, the effects of deterioration can become magnified beyond those buildings identified in the eligibility survey. This effect is widespread throughout the Project Area; deteriorated buildings are found on 230 of 1,037 parcels (22%). Figure C illustrates those parcels which have deteriorated buildings.

Deterioration of Site Improvements

The conditions of roadways, alleys, curbs, gutters, sidewalks, off-street parking and surface storage areas may also evidence deterioration through surface cracking, crumbling, potholes, depressions, loose paving materials, and weeds protruding through the surface.

Deteriorated surface improvements can be identified on 209 of 1,037 parcels (20%). Major evidence of site deterioration included surface cracking, potholes, depressions, and loose paving materials throughout parking areas and private walkways. Figure C illustrates those parcels which display deteriorated surface improvements.

Deterioration, both of structures and of surface improvements, occurs significantly throughout the Project Area. More importantly, such deterioration has negative effects on investment in neighboring properties, to a much greater extent than the proportion of properties exhibiting this factor might suggest. Therefore, the combined deterioration of structures and surface improvements is a major factor in the designation of the Project Area as a conservation area.

PRESENCE OF STRUCTURES BELOW MINIMUM CODE STANDARDS

Structures below minimum code standards include all structures that do not meet the standards of zoning, subdivision, building, housing, property maintenance, fire, or other governmental codes applicable to the property. The principal purposes of such codes are to require buildings to be constructed in such a way as to sustain safety of loads expected from this type of occupancy, to be safe for occupancy against fire and similar hazards, and/or establish minimum standards essential for safe and sanitary habitation. Structures below minimum code are characterized by defects or deficiencies which presume to threaten health and safety.

Correspondence with City Staff determined that while violations of minimum City code standards exist, they are not of a significant percentage of existing structures and are not found to be spread throughout the Project Area. This characteristic is not a contributing factor to the conservation area designation of the Project Area.

ILLEGAL USE OF INDIVIDUAL STRUCTURES

Illegal use of individual structures refers to the use of structures in violation of applicable federal, state, or local laws exclusive of those applicable to the presence of structures below minimum code standards.

Due to limited documentation and limited observances of illegal land use within the Project Area during field surveys, it is not a contributing factor to the designation of the Project Area as a conservation area.

EXCESSIVE VACANCIES

Establishing the presence of this factor requires the identification, documentation, and mapping of the presence of vacant buildings and vacant portions of buildings. Excessive vacancy refers to the presence of buildings which are unoccupied or underutilized and which represent an adverse influence on the area because of the frequency, extent, or duration of such vacancies. It includes properties which evidence no apparent effort directed toward their occupancy or utilization and vacancies within buildings.

Out of the 587 principal buildings in the Project Area, buildings (32%) are partially or entirely vacant. Vacancies are found throughout the Project Area and are found on 228 of the 1,037 (22%) of the Project Area parcels. This distribution of vacancies exerts significant blighting affect throughout the Project Area to the point that it will begin to negatively impact adjacent properties and uses. The continued dispersal of vacancies could begin to indicate that a significant portion of the Project Area is underutilized, and the appearance of vacancies would exert a further drain upon the vitality of the community. Given the propensity of this characteristic and its potential to spread further throughout the Project Area, this characteristic is a major contributing factor to the conservation area designation of the Project Area. Figure D illustrates the parcels which contain a vacant or partially vacant building.

LACK OF VENTILATION, LIGHT, OR SANITARY FACILITIES

The lack of proper air circulation, access to natural light and ventilation by means of windows or skylights and a lack of bathroom facilities, kitchens, hot water and garbage storage/enclosure are characteristics that define a lack of ventilation, light or sanitary facilities. Structures with these characteristics would be found in violation of applicable federal and municipal codes and identified as violators.

No properties were identified in the Project Area to be obviously inadequately lit or ventilated. As a result, this factor does not significantly contribute to the eligibility of the Project Area as a conservation area.

INADEQUATE UTILITIES

This factor relates to all underground and overhead utilities, including, but not limited to, storm sewers and storm drainage, sanitary sewers, water lines, and gas, telephone and electric service which may be shown to be inadequate. Inadequate utilities would include those which are: (i) of insufficient capacity to serve the uses in the redevelopment project and surrounding areas; and (ii) deteriorated, antiquated, obsolete, or in disrepair or are lacking.

While the condition of inadequate utilities has not been documented as part of the surveys and analyses undertaken within the Project Area, existing utilities may need to be relocated or upgraded to adequately serve new development. Inadequate utilities are not a major factor in the designation of the Project Area.

EXCESSIVE LAND COVERAGE AND OVERCROWDING OF STRUCTURES AND COMMUNITY FACILITIES

This factor refers to the over-intensive use of property and the crowding of buildings and accessory facilities onto a site. Problem conditions include buildings either improperly situated on the parcel or located on parcels of inadequate size and shape in relation to present-day standards of development for health and safety, and multiple buildings on a single parcel. The resulting inadequate conditions include such factors as insufficient provision for light and air, increased threat of spread of fires due to close proximity to nearby buildings, lack of adequate or proper access to a public right-of-way, lack of required off-street parking, and inadequate provision for loading and service.

Based on the exterior field survey conducted by TAI there are no structures in the Project Area which exhibit visible overcrowding. This factor is not a major factor in the designation of the Project Area.

DELETERIOUS LAND USE OR LAYOUT

Deleterious land uses include all instances of incompatible land-use relationships, buildings occupied by inappropriate mixed-uses, or uses which may be considered noxious, offensive or environmentally unsuitable.

Incompatible land-use relationships typically occur between closely sited residential and non-residential land uses. Use characteristics such as hours of operation, vehicular traffic, noise, security lighting, and truck delivery traffic can negatively impact the quality of life for adjacent residences if there are not adequate buffers and site design considerations. Within the project area there are multiple instances where significant instances of excessive light or noise coming from non-residential uses were observed to significantly be a detriment to the residential use or nature of adjacent property. These instances were observed throughout the project area. Along 31st Street the location of multiple auto-repair shops and the junk yard significantly impacted the adjacent residences. Along Archer Avenue there are multiple instances where auto-oriented uses, such as repair shops or parking lots, were located adjacent to residences both within and to the south of the project area. The west side of Western Avenue south of Archer Avenue exhibited multiple instances where auto repair shops, used car dealers, and parking lots were negatively impacting the adjacent residences within and to the west of the project area.

Unfortunately, there were little to no instances where appropriate site layout and design techniques were utilized to minimize the negative effects non-residential uses have on adjacent residences. It is possible for residential and non-residential uses to exist in somewhat close proximity, but the appropriate buffers and site design are necessary to mitigate the deleterious effects. Parking areas should be screened from adjacent residences with a masonry wall and landscaping to reduce headlight glare and noise. Parking lot lighting must be shielded, directed downward and must not extend beyond the site's lot line. In many locations parking lot lighting was too high, glared off the property and into adjacent residences. If necessary landscaping off-site can be used to mitigate land use conflicts, but this level of site design was not found within the Project Area.

In addition, vehicle repair facilities were observed to conduct operations with open garage doors, in parking lots, and adjacent to residences. The level of noise and pollution has a direct negative effect on the adjacent residences.

Given the numerous instances of incompatible land-use relationships between residential and non-residential sites, deleterious land use or layout is a major contributing factor in the designation of the Project Area as a conservation area.

LACK OF COMMUNITY PLANNING

This may be a significant factor if the Project Area developed prior to or without the benefit or guidance of a community plan. This means that no community plan existed or it was considered inadequate, and/or was virtually ignored during the development of the area. This may be documented by establishing the date of adoption of the City's master plan or other plans which address the Project Area and determining whether development occurred before or after that date. This finding may be amplified by evidence which shows the deleterious results of the lack of community planning, including cross-referencing other factors cited in the blight finding. This may include, but is not limited to, adverse or incompatible land-use relationships, inadequate street layout, improper subdivision, and parcels of inadequate size or shape to meet contemporary development standards.

As stated under the deleterious land use or layout section, there are numerous significant instances where non-residential uses are detrimentally affecting residential uses. The majority of residences adjacent to the project area were developed over 100 years ago. Over 57% of all buildings within the project area were built over 100 years ago. Only 14% of the buildings in the project area were developed within the last 50 years. Since no plan for the area existed 100 years ago, the planning and site design of the majority of buildings in the project area occurred with no comprehensive planning. Apparently even those buildings built during an era when planning was carried out were not planned with significant buffering methods or site design alternatives to minimize the negative effects on adjacent residential uses.

The deleterious results of the lack of community planning also exist because of the haphazard land use layout throughout the Project Area. In many locations, small manufacturers, large repair facilities, or junk dealers, in search of a parcel of adequate size and shape to conduct their operations, had to select sites immediately adjacent to retail stores or single family residences. Their eventual needs for adequate loading zones and outdoor storage had to be met by utilizing adjacent sites platted for residential use, further impacting the remaining residences. In addition, the parcel sizes and the uses adjacent to the parcels also hampered the ability of these businesses to grow. The geographic location of the sites was obviously advantageous to the owners because of their repeated attempts to make their sites work for them. The land use layout resulted in negatively affecting the potential growth of the businesses in the community and the corresponding jobs associated with the business growth. If the platting and land use designations of the Project Area had the benefit of a community plan, appropriate sites could have been made available for all types of manufacturing and repair businesses in addition to allowing for the retail and residential growth within the community.

The current incompatible land-use relations exist due to lack of adequate planning. As a result, lack of planning is a major factor in the designation of the Project Area as a conservation area.

ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION COST IMPEDING DEVELOPMENT

This factor may be documented by determining if any requirements by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, the United States Environmental Protection Agency, or any study conducted by a recognized independent expert consultant has resulted in the need to incur remediation costs for a site that have resulted in impeding further site redevelopment.

Based on field survey, there do not appear to be any environmental remediation projects required within the Project Area. Therefore there could be no costs associated with a remediation project that could impede the redevelopment of a site. This factor does not significantly contribute to the status of the Project Area as a conservation area.

LAG IN GROWTH OF THE PROJECT AREA'S EQUALIZED ASSESSED VALUE

This factor can be cited if the total equalized assessed value of the Project Area has declined for 3 of the last 5 calendar years in which information is available; or is increasing at an annual rate that is less than the balance of the municipality for 3 of the last 5 calendar years for which information is available; or is increasing at an annual rate that is less than the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers published by the United States Department of Labor or successor agency for 3 of the last 5 calendar years for which information is available.

N/A* - Percentage change in Project Area EAV from 2001 not required for analysis

Table A-1 represents the most recent certified data available from the Cook County Assessor's Office as of January 2009. Based on information provided obtained from Cook County regarding the growth rate of equalized assessed value for the whole City over the last 5 years, the percent change in the EAV for the Project Area was less than the percent change for the City of Chicago in the years 2005 and 2007. Based on this evidence, lag in growth of EAV is not a major contributing factor to the status of the Project Area as a conservation area.

CONCLUSION

The Project Area qualifies as a conservation area according to the criteria established by the Act, based on more than 87% of the buildings within the Project Area being 35 years old or older and the predominance and extent of parcels exhibiting the following characteristics:

1. Deterioration of buildings and surface improvements
2. Excessive vacancies
3. Deleterious land use layout
4. Lack of community planning

Each of these factors is present to a significant degree and is reasonably distributed throughout the Project Area. Further, these factors act in combination with one another, reinforcing the negative affects of the other factors. For example, a property owner may be less likely to invest in maintenance for an obsolete building, which may lead to deterioration, which further inhibits investment. In turn, investment in neighboring properties is inhibited in this environment of decay. Therefore, while not every block exhibits every factor, the combination of the factors throughout the Project Area has an adverse impact on the stability of the Project Area. Due to the negative effect on the public safety and welfare caused by these factors, the Project Area is declared eligible as a conservation area. All of these characteristics point to the need for designation of the Project Area as a conservation area, to be followed by public intervention in order that redevelopment might occur.

Plan Housing Impact Study.*

INTRODUCTION

Teska Associates, Inc. has been retained to conduct a Housing Impact Study for the City of Chicago (the "City") Archer/Western Tax Increment Financing Redevelopment Plan and Project (the "Redevelopment Plan") pursuant to the Illinois Tax Increment Allocation Redevelopment Act (65 ILCS 5/11 - 74.4 - 1, et seq.) (the "Act"). This report summarizes the analyses and findings of the consultants' work, which is the responsibility of Teska Associates, Inc.

The Archer/Western Redevelopment Project Area ("Project Area") is located approximately three miles southwest of the central business district of Chicago. The project area includes property on the north and south side of Archer Avenue from Quinn Street on the east to Western Avenue on the west; property on the north and south side of 31st Street from Halsted Street on the east to Pitney Court on the west; property on the north and south side of 35th Street from Ashland Avenue on the east to the CTA railroad ROW on the west; and property on the east and west side of Western Avenue from Bross Avenue on the north to 47th Street on the south. The Stevenson Expressway runs just to the north of the Project Area.

As set forth in the Act, if the redevelopment plan for a redevelopment project area would result in the displacement of residents from 10 or more inhabited residential units, or if the redevelopment project area contains 75 or more inhabited residential units and the City does not certify at that time that no displacement of residents will occur, the municipality shall prepare a housing impact study and incorporate the study in the Redevelopment Plan.

The number and type of residential buildings in the Project Area potentially affected by the Redevelopment Plan were identified during the survey of building condition and land use conducted as part of the eligibility analysis for the Project Area. An estimate of the number of residential units within each such building, and whether such residential units were inhabited or uninhabited, was based on a number of analytical tools including, where appropriate, physical building surveys, Cook County tax assessment records, and United States Census data. As of July 1, 2008 the Project Area contained 703 residential units, of which 674 were inhabited and 29 were uninhabited.

The goal of the Redevelopment Plan is not to displace existing residents. The primary goal of the Redevelopment Plan is to increase housing opportunities and strengthen commercial nodes. However, the City is unable to certify that no displacement of residents will occur throughout the 23-year life of the Redevelopment Plan. Therefore, based on the requirements of the Act, this housing impact study contains the following parts:

Part I herein identifies the residential units in number and type, indicating whether they are inhabited or uninhabited, and the racial and ethnic composition of the residents. Specifically, the housing impact study shall provide the following:

- data as to whether the residential units are single family or multi-family units;
- the number and type of rooms within the units, if that information is available;
- data as to whether the units are inhabited or uninhabited, as determined not less than 45 days before the Redevelopment Plan is considered by the Community Development Commission; and

- data as to the racial and ethnic composition of the residents in the inhabited residential units (this data requirement shall be deemed to be fully satisfied by data from the most recent federal census).

Part II herein identifies the inhabited residential units in the proposed project area that may be removed, including:

- the number and location of those units that may be removed;
- the municipality's plans for relocation assistance for those residents in the proposed redevelopment project area whose residences are to be removed;
- the availability of replacement housing for those residents whose residences are to be removed, and the type, location, and cost of the housing; and
- the type and extent of relocation assistance to be provided.

PART I: RESIDENTIAL UNITS

Part I of this study provides the type, size and number of residential units within the Project Area, the number of inhabited and uninhabited units, and the racial and ethnic composition of the residents in the inhabited residential units.

TYPE AND NUMBER OF RESIDENTIAL UNITS

Field studies conducted by Teska Associates, Inc. and completed July 1, 2008 indicate that the Project Area contains 703 residential units. There are 90 single family homes, 207 units in multi-family buildings, and 406 units in mixed use buildings (typically, upper story apartments above commercial uses).

TYPE AND NUMBER OF ROOMS IN RESIDENTIAL UNITS

Tables C-1, C-2, and C-3, respectively, describe the distribution of the 703 residential units in the Project Area by number of rooms, by number of bedrooms, and by kitchen and plumbing facilities.

For purposes of this study, data has been gathered from the 2000 United States Census and is represented in Block Groups. A Block Group is a combination of census blocks (a census block is the smallest entity for which the Census Bureau collects and tabulates 100-percent data). The Block Group is the lowest level of geography for which the Census Bureau has tabulated sample, or long-form, data.

In this study, we have relied on the 2000 federal census because it is the best available information regarding the structures and residents of the Project Area. We have obtained information for the 21 block groups in the Project Area. These 21 block groups contain a total of 8,898 residential units.

The number of residential units in the Project Area (703) represents 7.9% of the total residential units within the 21 block groups. Therefore, that percentage has been consistently applied to estimate the distributions of rooms, number of bedrooms, and kitchen and plumbing facilities as presented in the tables below. For example, the number of one-room units in all 21 block groups is 141. Multiplying 7.9% by this total determines that there are 11 one-room units in the Project Area ($141 \times 0.079 = 11.14$).

Table C-1 shows the estimated number (rounded to the nearest whole number) of conventional residential units in the Project Area, by number of rooms. As defined by the Census Bureau, a room includes living rooms, dining rooms, kitchens, bedrooms, finished recreation rooms, enclosed porches suitable for year-round use, and lodger's rooms. Excluded are 'strip' or Pullman kitchens, bathrooms, open porches, balconies, halls or foyers, half-rooms, utility rooms, unfinished attics or basements, or other unfinished space used for storage. A partially divided room is a separate room only if there is a partition from floor to ceiling, but not if the partition consists solely of shelves or cabinets.

Table C-1 Estimated Number of Rooms per Dwelling Unit

Total	8,898	703

Table C-2 describes the estimated number of bedrooms in the conventional residential units in the Project Area. As defined by the Census Bureau, number of bedrooms includes all rooms intended for use as bedrooms even if they are currently used for some other purpose. A residential unit consisting of only one room, such as a one-room efficiency apartment, is classified by definition as having no bedroom.

Table C-3 describes the estimated number of conventional residential units in the Project Area with kitchen facilities and with plumbing facilities. As defined by the Census Bureau, a unit has complete kitchen facilities when it has all of the following: (1) an installed sink with piped water, (2) a range, cook top and convection or microwave oven, or cookstove, and (3) a refrigerator. All kitchen facilities must be located in the structure. They need not be in the same room. Portable cooking equipment is not considered a range or cookstove. An ice box is not considered to be a refrigerator. As defined by the Census Bureau, complete plumbing facilities include hot and cold piped water, a flush toilet, and a bathtub or shower. All three facilities must be located inside the house, apartment, or mobile home, but not necessarily in the same room. Housing facilities are classified as lacking complete plumbing facilities when any of the three facilities are not present.

INHABITED UNITS

Field surveys were completed on a building-by-building basis by Teska Associates, Inc. to determine the total number of inhabited and uninhabited residential units within the Project Area. As required by the Act, this information was ascertained as of July 1, 2008, which is not less than 45 days before the date that the resolution required by subsection (a) of Section 11-74.4-5 of the Act is or will be passed.

The Project Area contains 703 residential units, including 674 inhabited units and 29 uninhabited units. All of these uninhabited units are contained in mixed use buildings.

DEMOGRAPHICS

As required by the Act, the racial and ethnic composition of the residents in the inhabited residential units is determined according to the most recent federal census data.

First, the estimated number of persons in the Project Area is calculated. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has determined a family size adjustment rate based on the number of bedrooms in a unit. This rate is applied to the estimated number of units in the Project Area, in order to estimate the number of persons living in the Project Area. Estimates are shown in Table C-5 below. Currently, an estimated 2,449 persons reside in the Project Area.

Table C-5 Estimated Number of Residents

Number of Bedrooms	Number of Units within Project Area (see Table C-2)	HUD Family Size Adjustment Rate (persons per unit)	Estimated Number of Persons within Project Area
0	26	1.0	26
1	98	1.5	147
2	310	3.0	930
3	198	4.5	891
4	52	6.0	312
5 or more	19	7.5	143
Total	703	n/a	2,449

Source: United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, 2000

Second, racial and ethnic composition is available from the 2000 United States Census, for the 21 block groups which contain residential units in the Project Area. These block groups contain a total of 25,420 residents. Table C-6 identifies the residents of the 21 block groups by their racial and ethnic composition, and estimates the racial and ethnic composition of the estimated 2,449 residents of the Project Area. For example, census data indicates that 51.7% of the total number of residents within the 21 block groups are white. By applying this percentage to the estimated Project Area population of 2,449 and rounding to the nearest whole number, we estimate that there are 1,266 white persons among the 2,449 residents of the Project Area ($2,449 \times 0.517 = 1,266$).

Table C-6 Estimated Racial and Ethnic Composition of Residents

PART II: RELOCATION PLANS

As required by the Act, Part II contains information on any acquisition, relocation program, replacement housing, and relocation assistance.

RESIDENTIAL UNITS WHICH ARE TO BE REMOVED

The Redevelopment Plan indicates that zero inhabited residential units are targeted for acquisition at this time. The implementation of the goals and policies of the Redevelopment Plan will actually result in a net increase in the number of residential units within the Project Area. This is primarily a result of the change in land use from commercial to a commercial/residential mixed use in certain portions of the Project Area.

RELOCATION PROGRAM

If during the life of the 23-year tax increment financing district, the City acquires property which includes residential units, the City's plans for relocation assistance for qualified residents in the proposed Project Area shall be consistent with the requirements set forth in Section 11-74.4-3(n)(7) of the Act. The terms and conditions of such assistance are described under "Type and Extent of Relocation Assistance" below. The City, as of the date of this report, has prepared no specific relocation plan because it is not the intent of the City to acquire any occupied residential units within the Project Area.

AVAILABILITY OF REPLACEMENT HOUSING

In accordance with Section 11-74.4-3(n)(7) of the Act, the City shall make a good faith effort to ensure that affordable replacement housing for any qualified displaced resident whose residence is removed is located in or near the Project Area.

To promote development of affordable housing, the Redevelopment Plan requires that developers who receive tax increment financing assistance for market-rate housing are to set aside at least 20 percent of the units to meet affordability criteria established by the City's Department of Housing. Generally, this means the affordable for-sale units should be priced at a level that is affordable to households earning no more than 100 percent of the area median income (adjusted for family size), and affordable rental units should be affordable to households earning no more than 60 percent of the area median income (adjusted for family size).

Samples of the type, location, and cost of a sample of possible replacement housing units located in the Bridgeport, McKinley Park, and New City community areas are listed in Table C-7. The information presented is based on classified advertisements from the Chicago Tribune, Chicago Sun-Times and Chicago Reader newspaper listings (compiled from both on-line and print versions from the week of July 28, 2008).

It is important to note, however, that Chicago has a rental cycle that turns over in greater volume on May 1 and October 1 of each year. The majority of the apartments in the City that turn over in any given year become available during the months prior to those dates. Therefore, housing ads placed at these times will likely reflect a wider variety of rental rates, unit sizes and locations. There are always fewer listings during July when people are less likely to move during vacation time or very hot weather.

TYPE AND EXTENT OF RELOCATION ASSISTANCE

In the event that the implementation of the Redevelopment Plan results in the removal by the City of residential housing units in the Redevelopment Project Area occupied by low-income households or very low-income households, the occupants of such units shall be provided relocation assistance not less than that which would be provided under the federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 and the regulations there under, including the eligibility criteria. The City shall make a good faith effort to ensure that affordable replacement housing for the aforementioned households is located in or near the Redevelopment Project Area.

As used in the above paragraph, "low-income households," "very low-income households" and "affordable housing" have the meanings set forth in Section 3 of the Illinois Affordable Housing Act, 310 ILCS 65/3. As of the date of this Redevelopment Plan, these statutory terms have the following meaning: (i) "low-income household" means a single person, family or unrelated persons living together whose adjusted income is more than 50 percent but less than 80 percent of the median income of the area of residence, adjusted for family size, as such adjusted income and median income are determined from time to time by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") for purposes of Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 ("Section 8"); (ii) "very low-income household" means a single person, family or unrelated persons living together whose adjusted income is not more than 50 percent of the median income of the area of residence, adjusted for family size, as so determined by HUD for purposes of Section 8; and (iii) "affordable housing" means residential housing that, so long as the same is occupied by low-income households or very low-income households, requires payment of monthly housing costs, including utilities other than telephone, of no more than 30 percent of the maximum allowable income for such households, as applicable.

An estimate of the number of low and very low-income households in the Redevelopment Project Area is based on the 2000 United States Census data for the block groups which contain the residential units in the Project Area and an estimate of the percentage low, very-low, and 30 percent of the median income of the area as provided by HUD. The average of the HUD income category percentages for the block groups was used to determine the number of household within the Redevelopment Project Area (See Table C-8).

Table C-8 Estimated Number of Households by Income Category

Be It Resolved By The Community Development Commission Of The City Of Chicago:

Section 1. The above recitals are incorporated herein and made a part hereof.

Section 2. The Commission hereby makes the following findings pursuant to Section 5/11-74.4-3(n) of the Act or such other section as is referenced herein:

a. the Area on the whole has not been subject to growth and development through investment by private enterprise and would not reasonably be expected to be developed without the adoption of the Plan;

b. the Plan:

(i) conforms to the comprehensive plan for the development of the City as a whole; or

(ii) the Plan either (A) conforms to the strategic economic development or redevelopment plan issued by the Chicago Plan Commission or (B) includes land uses that have been approved by the Chicago Plan Commission;

c. the Plan meets all of the requirements of a redevelopment plan as defined in the Act and, as set forth in the Plan, the estimated date of completion of the projects described therein and retirement of all obligations issued to finance redevelopment project costs is not later than December 31 of the year in which the payment to the municipal treasurer as provided in subsection (b) of Section 5/11-74.4-8 of the Act is to be made with respect to ad valorem taxes levied in the twenty-third (23rd) calendar year following the year of the adoption of the ordinance approving the designation of the Area as a redevelopment project area and, as required pursuant to Section 5/11-74.4-7 of the Act, no such obligation shall have a maturity date greater than twenty (20) years;

e. the Area includes only those contiguous parcels of real property and improvements thereon that are to be substantially benefitted by proposed Plan improvements, as required pursuant to Section 5/11-74.4-4(a) of the Act;

f. as required pursuant to Section 5/11-74.4-3(p) of the Act:

(i) the Area is not less, in the aggregate, than one and one-half (1½) acres in size; and

(ii) conditions exist in the Area that cause the Area to qualify for designation as a redevelopment project area and, a conservation area as defined in the Act;

g. If the Area is qualified as a "blighted area", whether improved or vacant, each of the factors necessary to qualify the Area as a Redevelopment Project Area on that basis is (i) present, with that presence documented to a meaningful extent so that it may be reasonably found that the factor is clearly present within the intent of the Act and (ii) reasonably distributed throughout the improved part or vacant part, as applicable, to the Area as required pursuant to Sections 5/11-74.4-3(a) of the Act;

i. If the Area is qualified as a "conservation area", the combination of the factors necessary to qualify the Area as a redevelopment project area on that basis is detrimental to the public health, safety, morals or welfare, and the Area may become a blighted area; [and]

Section 3. The Commission recommends that the City Council approve the Plan pursuant to Section 5/11-74.4-4 of the Act.

Section 4. The Commission recommends that the City Council designate the Area as a Redevelopment Project Area pursuant to Section 5/11-74.4-4 of the Act.

The following is said ordinance as passed:

WHEREAS, The Department of Housing ("D.O.H."), working intensively with a broad-based advisory group appointed by the Commissioner of D.O.H. on behalf of Mayor Richard M. Daley, and after inclusive consultations with policy experts, community representatives and tenant organizations, has completed the Five Year Affordable Housing Plan for 2009 -- 2013, called Accepting the Challenge: Chicago's Five Year Affordable Housing Plan for 2009 -- 2013 and submits the Estimated Five Year Unit Production 2009 -- 2013 for approval by the City Council; and

WHEREAS, On January 1, 2009, D.O.H. was succeeded by the Department of Community Development ("D.C.D."); and

WHEREAS, D.C.D. seeks to set affordable housing priorities that advance the City of Chicago's neighborhood revitalization goals, provide fair and equitable affordable housing choices for Chicago's diverse racial and ethnic groups, and address the needs of families and individuals with high housing cost burdens and those most at-risk of homelessness over the next five (5) years; and

WHEREAS, The years 2009 -- 2013 will be a time of both opportunity and urgency for expanding affordable housing options, there being opportunity in the City's commitment to neighborhood revitalization, and urgency in closing gaps between supply and demand for affordable housing among owners and especially renters, and for Chicago's low- and very low-income residents and the City's neediest families and individuals; and

WHEREAS, Strategic approaches are essential to assure the most effective use of resources and programs for maximum contribution to the three (3) core strategies of the Five Year Affordable Housing Plan, namely To Create and Preserve Affordable Rental Housing, To Promote and Support Home Ownership, and To Improve and Preserve Homes; and

WHEREAS, Achieving deeper collaboration and improved coordination between D.C.D. and other City departments in support of affordable housing goals is essential; and

WHEREAS, Developing partnerships with other public and private housing stakeholders to mobilize resources behind a housing agenda is also essential since housing challenges are increasingly metropolitan and regional in scope and dependent on support at the federal and state levels; now, therefore,

Be It Ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago, as follows:

SECTION 1. The Five Year Affordable Housing Plan and Estimated Five Year Unit Production 2009 -- 2013 (the "Plan"), attached as Exhibit A, is hereby approved. Such reports shall outline and describe alterations in policy, program or the external environment that affect the department's strategy and goals, and shall provide such other information as the Committee on Housing and Real Estate deems necessary.

SECTION 2. The Commissioner of D.C.D. shall prepare an annual estimate of D.C.D.'s production and shall prepare quarterly and annual reports on D.C.D.'s housing programs, identifying program allocations, sources of funds, and cumulative unit production, indicating income distribution for program beneficiaries. The form of the estimate shall be based on the display in Exhibit A, attached: Estimated Five Year Unit Production 2009 -- 2013.

SECTION 3. The Commissioner of D.C.D. shall file with the City Council quarterly reports on the financing activity of D.C.D., including specific information about each of the affordable housing loans passed by the City Council in the preceding quarter. Information on loans shall include separate statements of private and public funding (by funding source) involved and shall be limited to loans in excess of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) in principal amount. Each quarterly report will also contain an update on which developments approved by the City Council have closed during the preceding quarter.

SECTION 4. Reports shall be filed no later than the last business day of April, July, October and January of each year. The first report shall be filed on April 30, 2009 and shall provide the required information for the period January 1, 2009 through March 31, 2009.

Exhibit "A" referred to in this ordinance reads as follows:

Exhibit "A".

Five Year Affordable Housing Plan And Estimated Five Year
Unit Production 2009 -- 2013.

Letter from the Mayor

Thank you for your interest in the City of Chicago's Five Year Affordable Housing Plan, Accepting the Challenge.

The Five Year Affordable Housing Plan draws on the expertise of people familiar with every aspect of urban housing, including not-for-profit developers and academics, builders and foundation executives, lenders and borrowers, landlords, and tenants. These are the people who make up the housing community in our city, and they have helped make Chicago a national leader in affordable housing, investing more than $4 billion over the last two decades through a variety of innovative programs.

The success of the Five-Year Affordable Housing Plan, and the ongoing health of our city and its neighborhoods, requires a coordinated effort. Along with housing, we must address issues such as transportation, economic growth and work force development to create and preserve healthy communities and encourage continued community development.

The leaders of Chicago's housing community share a commitment to decent, affordable housing for people of every age, income and background. Affordable housing is a critical ingredient in maintaining and strengthening the outstanding quality of life our residents have come to cherish.

In today's challenging economic times, it is more important than ever to preserve and expand the housing options for all Chicagoans. With this Five-Year Plan as a guide, I am confident we will continue to lead the nation in providing high-quality affordable housing for our citizens.

Sincerely,

Richard M. Daley
Mayor

A Global City A Great Home Town

Two Decades of Progress

Over the last 20 years, under the leadership of Mayor Richard M. Daley, Chicago has developed an international reputation: not only as a great city to visit and do business, but also as a great place to live, work and raise a family. Once considered the crossroads of the United States, Chicago is now recognized as a global city, the center of the Northern Hemisphere.

Chicago's visitors are dazzled by Millennium Park, the lakefront, the dynamic downtown, the flowers and greenery and the wide array of cultural and recreational activities.

But those who delve deeper come away equally impressed by the city's neighborhoods and the excellent quality of life they make possible.

As New York Times columnist David Brooks wrote in 2006, "No American city has progressed as much in the past two decades as Chicago. It's richer, cleaner, more livable."

Chicago's renaissance didn't just happen. It resulted from the willingness of the public, private and not-for-profit sectors to adapt to change, to accept challenges and to work together on behalf of policies that benefit the entire city.

"Chicago has survived by repeatedly reinventing itself," said a Wall Street Journal writer. As smokestack and meat-packing industries shut down or moved elsewhere, Chicago adapted to the increasingly global economy by attracting new industries that processed information rather than iron or animal parts. Once considered the center of the Midwest, Chicago has now become the center of the Northern Hemisphere and one of the top ten global cities, according to rankings compiled by Foreign Policy Magazine, A. T. Kearney and the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations. Their study placed Chicago eighth in the world among global cities, in rankings based on the amount of business activity; human capital, including ethnic diversity and education; exchange of information with the rest of the world; number and quality of cultural activities; and the city's involvement in international policymaking and dialogue.

These new industries attracted well-educated young professionals and managers, many of whom preferred to live in the city, close to work and to the cultural and recreational opportunities the city has to offer. In the 1990s, downtown Chicago became the city's fastest-growing neighborhood, with 4,000 to 5,000 new housing units each year. High-priced condos and town houses sprang up in close-in neighborhoods such as Bucktown, Wicker Park, West Town and Lincoln Park.

This market-driven residential building boom made Chicago the envy of cities across the nation, many of which continued to lose jobs and residents to the suburbs and watch their economies slide downwards.

But the growth in high-end jobs and housing tells only part of the story of a great city. Chicago is determined to be a city that works for people of every age, income and background. It welcomes new immigrants seeking their piece of the Ameri-

39,000 units. Sixty-one percent of those units housed families earning less than $37,700 for a family of four, or 50 percent of area median income (AMI); and 83 percent were for households making below $59,600, or 80 percent of AMI.

The Department's investments have been made through a number of programs:

The Chicago Low Income Housing Trust Fund provided annual subsidies to support more than 2,000 very-low-income rental units for the last several years. The number of units assisted each year reached 3,500 in 2008, as a result of a new program funded by a statewide $10 recording fee for real estate transactions. The state legislation that created this program was based on the City's model and passed the Illinois General Assembly in 2005 with the City's strong support.

The Multifamily Rehab and New Construction Program built and preserved more than 19,000 affordable units from 2004-2008.

The Multifamily Troubled Buildings Initiative has preserved more than 5,600 units in more than 300 buildings since 2004-2008.

Through the Downtown Density Bonus, downtown developers have committed more than $44 million to affordable housing efforts. The program requires downtown developers either to build affordable units or pay a fee when are granted the square footage that exceeds zoning requirements.

The Supportive Housing Initiative has invested more than $80 million to create or preserve nearly 600 supportive housing units during the 2004-2008 plan.

Since 2004, the Department of Housing has committed almost $200 million in resources toward the Chicago Housing Authority's Plan for Transformation to assist 10 CHA mixed-income communities consisting of 1,590 units of replacement, affordable and market-rate housing. Overall, more than 15,000 housing units have been demolished and more than 16,000 replacement units have been constructed and rehabbed toward the CHA's goal of 25,000.

can dream. Its population, like that of the rest of the nation, is aging, and it wants its seniors to be able to remain in the neighborhoods that mean so much to them, near friends, family and places of worship. Low-income working families, long-time residents, previously incarcerated individuals, people with disabilities—all of them deserve the opportunity to live in clean, safe, affordable housing in strong neighborhoods with good schools, parks and other public amenities.

In the 1990s, Mayor Daley began a major effort to strengthen their neighborhoods, beginning with the schools, which some experts had declared beyond hope. Chicagoans invested billions in new and renovated school buildings, and they didn't stop there. Additional billions were poured into new libraries, senior centers, police and fire stations and park facilities. These became community anchors, the building blocks for improvements in the quality of life in neighborhoods throughout the city.

A key element in the revival of Chicago's neighborhoods has been affordable housing. In a global city like Chicago, the market simply cannot produce enough affordable housing to meet the needs of low-and-moderate-income individuals and families. Government has to play a role, and Chicago's City government accepted that challenge.

A Record of Accomplishment

Since 1989 the City invested more than $4.5 billion in local, state and federal funds to create, improve and maintain more than 170,000 houses and apartments for people of modest means. These homes not only have improved the quality of life for those thousands of Chicagoans, they have helped revive and sustain entire neighborhoods. The new residents have attracted new commercial activity to these neighborhoods, which in turn attracted additional residents in a self-sustaining cycle of community renewal.

The Mayor's commitment to affordable housing has been laid out in three successive five-year plans, beginning in 1993. The 2004-2008 plan called for committing $1,877,090,250 to support 43,085 housing units. Through the second quarter of 2008, we had committed nearly $2.2 billion to assist more than

Since 1989, the Department of Housing has assisted more than 7,400 units of affordable senior housing in 72 projects, almost one-quarter of all the senior units in the city.

Four years into the 2004-2008 Five-Year Plan, the Department of Housing has already exceeded its goal of assisting 6,045 units of new single-family housing through programs such as:

- City Mortgage, which provides mortgage financing and down payment assistance to make homeownership attractive and more affordable.
- TaxSmart, which provides an annual tax credit to qualified homebuyers to reduce federal income taxes by an amount equal to 20 percent of the annual interest on a mortgage.
- City Lots for City Living, which allows eligible applicants to purchase vacant City-owned property for the construction of affordably priced for-sale homes.
- New Homes for Chicago, which provides purchase subsidies and assistance with land costs to moderate-income homebuyers. This program has been improved to make it more attractive to developers and first-time homebuyers by focusing subsidies on those who need them most and by offering incentives to encourage construction in difficult-to-develop areas of neighborhoods.

Other Department of Housing programs have prevented foreclosures and helped reduce homelessness.

The Home Ownership Preservation Initiative (HOPI) has prevented more than 1,800 foreclosures through free counseling, loss mitigation and loan workouts and reclaimed more than 500 vacant, troubled buildings since 2003. More than 10,000 families at risk of foreclosure have been counseled and educated through HOPI. In 2007 alone, more than 6,000 troubled borrowers received access to free credit counseling, simply by calling 311. Under the Mayor's leadership, Chicago was the first municipality in the nation to hold Borrower Outreach Days. More than 2,000 people received in-person assistance at 10 of these events in 2007 and 2008. The Department of Housing also sends out foreclosure prevention information to homeowners within days of a foreclosure filing, giving them an opportunity to work out solutions that might help them retain their homes.

Through the Plan to End Homelessness, which the Mayor unveiled in 2003, permanent housing for the homeless has increased by 67 percent to more than 2,400 units, and more than 3,800 households are being assisted each year by homeless prevention programs. Homelessness decreased 12 percent from 2005 to 2007, based on homeless counts on comparable days.

More than 17,000 households have taken advantage of a new Homelessness Prevention Call Center, which was launched in 2007 to centralize access and screening for prevention assistance.

Notable Recent Initiatives

Over the last five years, the City has undertaken a number of new and innovative programs to meet its changing housing needs.

The Chicago Community Land Trust (CCLT) was created in 2006 to preserve the long-term affordability of home ownership units created through City programs. Chicago was the first big city to create such a program, which is designed to ensure permanent affordability. Under this program, assisted buyers agree to resell the home to another income-qualified buyer at an affordable price. Property taxes are assessed with consideration for the affordable resale price, rather than the market value. Twenty-one units are currently administered by the CCLT, and an additional 200 homes are in the pipeline to become part of the program.

With support from the Department of Housing, the Preservation Compact was established in 2007 by the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, the Urban Land Institute and other organizations to preserve 75,000 affordable rental units throughout Cook County by 2020.

The City Council approved a Preservation Ordinance in 2007 to help keep apartment buildings affordable after their federal use restrictions expire.

In 2007, the City Council expanded the Affordable Requirements Ordinance to increase the supply of affordable housing while balancing the need with the benefits that result from development. The expanded ordinance requires that new residential developments of 10 or more units make at least 10 percent of the units available at affordable prices if:

- The developer receives City financial assistance; or
- The developer receives any City land, whether discounted or not, or
- Any zoning change is granted that increases project density or allows a residential use not previously allowed, or
- The development is a "planned development," except for developments outside of the downtown area that do not obtain residential density increases.

In lieu of providing affordable units, developers are permitted to make a payment to the Affordable Housing Opportunity Fund of $100,000 per affordable unit not produced. The funds will be used to develop new units across the City and to assist the Trust Fund.

The City convened a Condominium Task Force composed of key stakeholders to explore the issues related to condominium development and conversion and make recommendations for action by the City. The task force is focusing on four areas:

- 1) a framework for tracking condominium development;
- 2) protections for tenants in buildings being converted to condominiums;
- 3) potential controls on condominium conversions; and
- 4) consumer education.

Planning for Affordable Housing in a Troubled Economy

Our 2004-2008 Affordable Housing Plan was developed in a strong, national economy, which had bounced back smartly from the downturn that began in 2000. Housing prices were rising rapidly; employment was increasing; the stock market was rising; and government revenues were expanding.

Foreclosures have a devastating impact on neighborhoods. Vacant, boarded and abandoned homes attract vandalism, arson and other crimes. Blighted homes often discourage further investment, limiting opportunities for economic growth within the community. A 2005 study for the Homeownership Preservation Foundation estimated that a single foreclosed, vacant property can cost municipalities up to $34,000 in police and fire protection, trash removal, courts, unpaid water bills and demolition.

While many individual borrowers were taking out unaffordable mortgages, developers were using readily available credit to convert apartment buildings into condominiums, forcing the tenants to look for new apartments, which were not always available at rents they could afford. When the economy began to turn sour, many of the new condos sat empty.

In summary, the economy has affected our affordable housing efforts in a number of negative ways. Rising unemployment, foreclosures and condo conversions have increased the demand for affordable housing, especially rental housing. Rising food and fuel prices make it even harder for families to pay the rent or mortgage. Rising prices and slow tax collections have left the city, state and federal governments with less money for affordable housing programs and other important priorities. Funding of key federal entitlement programs for Chicago—Community Development Block Grants, Community Service Block Grants, HOME funds and Workforce Investment Act—has decreased steadily since 2000 and fell 10 percent from 2007 to 2008. Based on historical patterns, the current downturn in the housing market could continue almost to the end of our 2009-2013 affordable housing plan.

Preparing a five-year affordable housing plan in this environment presents a challenge, but not an insurmountable one. To assist us in developing this plan, the Department of Housing established a 46-member advisory group consisting of not-for-profit developers of affordable housing, community leaders, planners, and representatives of lenders, landlords, builders, real estate brokers, social service agencies and charitable foundations. They held five meetings, hearing presentations from economists, planners, academicians, housing advocates and

The 2009-2013 plan is being created in a much different national economic environment. After growing some 15 percent from 2000 to 2006, the economy began to slow in 2007. The unemployment rate began edging up after falling for three previous years. The economy created 44,700 new jobs per month in previous 2007 and early 2008—fewer than half the number needed to employ the 90,000 new entrants into the economy each month. The inflation rate edged toward a 1.5-year high, spurred by high energy and food prices. Corporate profits and consumer spending declined. After reaching a historic high in 2007, the stock market dropped more than 1,000 points; and tax collections slowed at every level of government.

Real Residential Investment

Most important from a housing perspective, residential real estate sales fell some 33 percent from 2005 to 2008 as the overheated market cooled. The burden fell disproportionately on moderate-income first-time borrowers, many of whom took out adjustable-rate mortgages and were unable to meet the higher payments when the rates reset. Others were lured by predatory lenders into taking out home loans they could ill afford. The result was a rising number of vacant and foreclosed homes in many neighborhoods. There were 14,250 foreclosure filings in Chicago in 2007, an increase of 46 percent over 2006 and 105 percent over 2000. The highest concentrations were in low-income and minority communities.

City officials. The Department of Housing also held three public hearings, where we heard from residents concerned about the lack of affordable housing in their neighborhoods; from disabled and low-income residents who could not find affordable apartments; and from advocates of housing for previously incarcerated individuals and victims of domestic abuse.

Chicago's entitlement funding has decreased
Since 2002

Our advisory committee agreed that, at a time when the economy is sluggish and government resources are limited, the Department must be especially creative in finding new ways to encourage affordable housing. It must make every dollar count and explore every challenge for the hidden opportunity.

Fortunately, Chicago has advantages many other cities do not share. Its neighborhoods have benefited from two decades of investment in community anchors and infrastructure. It already is a leader in affordable housing, with active and dedicated community of affordable housing advocates who boast an enviable track record. As Eric Belsky, director of Harvard University's Joint Center for Housing Studies, told our advisory committee, Chicago is well-positioned to meet the affordable housing challenge because our "well-stocked toolbox" of successful programs is bigger than those of many other municipalities.

Chicago's diversified economy provides stability during economic expansions and contractions. The peaks are not quite as high as in other parts of the country and the valleys are not quite as low. According to the Office of Federal Housing Enterprise Oversight, the Chicago area ranked fifth out of the 10 largest metropolitan areas in terms of the change in average home prices from April 2007 to April 2008. Prices decreased 1 percent in the Chicago area, compared with a 4 percent decrease in Houston and a 14 percent decrease in Los Angeles. Over the previous five years, Chicago ranked sixth among the 10 largest metropolitan areas, with a 34 percent increase in average home prices, compared with a 75 percent increase in Miami and an 11 percent decrease in Detroit. Many Chicago neighborhoods are quite diverse, with a wide range of both family incomes and housing values. Even as their median home values rise, they still contain many affordable homes.

With guidance from the advisory group and other members of the public, the Department of Housing has developed a plan that is forward-looking, compassionate and realistic. It embodies several principles that, we believe, are shared by most Chicagoans:

- Chicago should continue to be a city of strong affordable neighborhoods, with good housing, schools, parks, libraries and shopping districts.
- Affordable housing is an asset to every neighborhood and to the city as a whole. It helps ensure that Chicago continues to be home to people of many different ages, incomes and backgrounds.
- Affordable housing helps build healthy neighborhoods. It creates a market for new retail stores, restaurants and other neighborhood amenities. Conversely, when City government brings public improvements to a neighborhood, the existing housing becomes more attractive to low- and-moderate income families.

- Affordable housing is good for the economy of the entire city. When housing costs are minimized, low-and-moderate-income families have more money to spend on other items, including education, the passport to a better life for their children. Affordable housing also creates jobs in construction, building management and other industries.
- Affordability means more than just the size of the rent or mortgage payment. A home is more affordable when it uses less energy, when it is less expensive to build and operate, when taxes are reasonable and when nearby mass transit makes driving unnecessary.
- Government support is necessary to ensure an adequate supply of affordable housing in Chicago. Government's role should be to work in partnership with the private and not-for-profit sectors.
- While homeownership has many positive effects on a city, it is not for everyone. The most critical need in Chicago is for affordable rental housing for those at the lower end of the economic spectrum.
- Supportive housing must remain a high priority. Many Chicagoans need social services in addition to housing, to help them turn their lives around.
- The Department should continue to direct the majority of resources toward the neediest individuals and families.
- We will need to be flexible, creative and open to new ideas.

The Five-Year Affordable Housing Plan for 2009-2013 calls for investing $2 billion to assist 50,000 housing units. This is a modest increase over the 2004-2008 Plan but a realistic one in the current economic climate. If the economy improves more rapidly than economists now expect, the City will respond appropriately to new opportunities that might arise. We will use every tool at our disposal. At a time of limited resources, we must invest more wisely and strategically than ever before.

The 2009-2013 Plan

Introduction

In the tradition of Chicago's willingness to adapt, accept challenges, and work together on behalf of policies that benefit the entire City, we are embracing change once again with our new Department of Community Development. This new department, which merges housing, planning, and workforce development, will allow us to more comprehensively address aspects of community development and revitalization.

It will play a key role in enhancing the stability of our neighborhoods at a time when cities all over America are facing steep challenges.

Affordable Rental Housing

Our top priority will be to build and preserve affordable rental housing, the housing option of individuals and families with the lowest incomes, including seniors, people with disabilities, veterans, previously incarcerated individuals, large families, recent immigrants and homeless individuals and families. Our efforts will be directed toward all types of rental housing, small buildings as well as large, because they all play an important role in meeting the housing needs of low-income Chicagoans.

The shortage of affordable apartments in the Chicago area is expected to get worse. According to a study by the Real Estate Center at DePaul University, "If recent trends in the Cook County housing market continue, the supply of affordable rental units will decline by 38,000 from 2005-2020 to a level of only 315,000. Over the same period, it is expected that demand for affordable rentals will rise by 34,000 to more than 500,000 units. The net result in 2020 will be more than 185,000 households seeking, but unable, to find, affordable rental housing in Cook County."

Cook County Affordable Rental Housing Supply and Demand 1990-2020

Rent Subsidies

The Chicago Low Income Housing Trust Fund currently provides annual subsidies to 3,500 apartments occupied by households earning less than 30 percent of area median income. At least half its resources go toward households earning less than 15 percent of the area median income, or $11,300 for a family of four in 2008. We will continue this efficient and popular program and look for ways to increase the availability of rent subsidies.

Construction of Rental Housing

We will seek to spur the construction of new multifamily housing by developing new ways to make the federal Low Income Housing Tax Credit more viable.

Under the Low Income Housing Tax Credit program, federal tax credits are allocated to developers of affordable housing who sell them to investors, mainly financial institutions. Because of declining housing and credit markets, many financial institutions have less profit to shield through tax credits, so they are buying fewer of them. The reduced demand for the credits has lowered their price, leaving funding gaps that have to be made up through funds from government or non-profit institutions. This in turn also means lower production because fewer deals will find financing in a given year. In order to make the Low Income Housing Tax Credits as attractive as possible to investors, we will consider revisions to our policies and procedures related to this program.

We will explore additional ways to use free-market mechanisms, similar to the Affordable Requirements Ordinance and Downtown Density Bonus, to create affordable housing. We will consider making affordable housing part of public capital projects and private mixed-use developments. We already combine the development of senior centers with the creation of affordable housing units as well as new retail stores.

We also will look for ways to expand the use of Tax Increment Financing (TIF) to spur the construction of new affordable housing. TIF is an economic development tool that allocates new property tax growth within a designated area toward public projects that specifically benefit that area.

Preservation of Rental Housing

With construction of new affordable rental housing facing an uncertain future, it is even more important that we preserve our existing supply. Preservation often is more cost-effective than new construction.

From 2009 through 2013 we intend to preserve more than 5,000 rental units through the Multifamily Troubled Buildings

Initiative. Under this initiative, troubled buildings are referred to the Department by the Police and Buildings departments, community policing volunteers and community organizations. When owners fail to bring their buildings into compliance with the City building code, the Initiative allows the City to use a number of strategies, including seeking a court-appointed receiver; transferring City liens to the Community Investment Corporation for foreclosure; purchasing delinquent notes of foreclosure; and selling the notes to lenders.

We intend to preserve more than 5,600 units in partnership with the Preservation Compact during the 2009-2013 Five-Year Plan. The City is making $150 million in tax-exempt bonds available for this program and has committed $12 million through 2010, $6 million to the Troubled Buildings Initiative and $6 million for an acquisition fund to gain control of rental buildings and to make grants to help responsible owners repair their buildings and reduce energy costs.

We will look for ways to leverage market activity to create incentives to support preservation, including exploring opportunities to leverage unused density to support affordable housing.

The Department will continue to educate landlords and tenants on their rights and responsibilities under the Residential Landlord-Tenant Ordinance and the new Preservation Ordinance. The Preservation Ordinance was passed in 2007 and requires building owners to give 12 months' notice before federal subsidies expire, so tenants have time to seek a developer who could keep the building affordable. The owner also must notify the City, which could look for a qualified developer who could maintain the building as an affordable rental property. If the owner seeks to sell to a market-rate developer, the affordable developer has the right to match the purchase price.

We will work with the Departments of Police, Buildings and Law to enforce the Slum Nuisance Ordinance. Vacant buildings with a history of building code complaints or criminal activity could eventually be forfeited and assigned to nonprofit developers for rehab through the Troubled Buildings Initiative.

Supportive Housing

One of the principles behind the Five-Year Plan is that housing alone is often not sufficient to help people meet the challenges that confront them. The Supportive Housing Initiative provides rental assistance and supportive services to help individuals and families with special needs maintain permanent housing. These services include counseling on finances, parenting, substance abuse and employment.

The Department will develop a new plan, similar to our Senior Housing Plan, which will identify the communities most in need of supportive housing and create a pipeline of service-enhanced developments.

Chicago's Plan to End Homelessness

The Department will continue to be a partner in implementing the Plan to End Homelessness. This plan seeks to end homelessness by 2012 by realigning Chicago's homeless service system from a shelter-based to a permanent housing-based system. The Plan provides services to help people address the problems that caused them to become homeless and to keep people from becoming homeless again.

Public Housing

The Department will continue to be a major partner in the Chicago Housing Authority's Plan for Transformation, the largest and most ambitious public housing makeover in the history of the United States. Over the last eight years, it has changed lives and transformed neighborhoods by breaking down the barriers that separated residents of public housing from the rest of the community. The Plan for Transformation calls for replacing high-rise buildings with mixed-income developments, integrated physically, economically and socially with the surrounding communities.

Senior Housing

As the population continues to age, in Chicago and throughout the nation, senior housing becomes increasingly important. Seniors are an important part of the social fabric of Chicago, and the Department is committed to helping them remain here.

The Department will move forward with its Five-Year Senior Housing Plan for 2006-2010, which aims to create 4,000 units of senior housing, using a variety of models: independent living, HUD Section 202 developments, supportive-living facilities, condominiums and full-service senior communities. Three years into the Senior Housing Plan, the Department has created 884 units, representing three quarters of the goal.

We also will develop an initiative aimed specifically at "grand-families," grandparents raising grandchildren.

Foreclosures

The Department will devote considerable effort to the foreclosure crisis: preventing foreclosures whenever possible and, when they do occur, helping reduce their impact on families and neighborhoods.

One of the keys to foreclosure prevention is early intervention. The Department will expand its outreach efforts to encourage borrowers to seek assistance at the first sign of difficulty in meeting their mortgage payments.

Through HOPI, immediate financial counseling will continue to be available to troubled borrowers who call 311. In addition, the Department will continue its Borrower Outreach Days at locations throughout the city to help those in the hardest-hit communities stay in their homes. At these events, Chicago residents at risk of foreclosure can meet with lenders and financial counselors to help get their mortgages back on track.

The foreclosure crisis is not limited to single-family homes and condominiums. According to the Woodstock Institute, over 35 percent of foreclosures on residential properties in Chicago in 2007 were on 2-to-6-unit apartment buildings, primarily in minority and low-income communities. This is a critical problem, because a foreclosure on one of these buildings can force six times as many households into the rental market as a foreclosure on a single-family home. Funding mechanisms must be developed for the acquisition of these buildings to retain them as active rental properties.

At the urging of Mayor Daley, the Illinois General Assembly passed legislation in 2008 to strengthen protections for renters impacted by building foreclosures. Also in 2008, the Chicago City Council passed an ordinance requiring tenants to be notified within 7 days of a foreclosure filing. The City will continue outreach to ensure such tenants are aware of their protections and where to find help.

Residential Foreclosure Filings by Building Type 2007

■ 1-Unit Building ■ 2 to 6 Unit Building □ Condominium

Chicago's foreclosure prevention programs have been recognized nationally, and we will continue to implement and expand them. But despite our best efforts, foreclosure sometimes is unavoidable. In those cases, the Department will work with community groups, not-for-profit organizations and the federal government to find buyers or renters for homes that have become vacant because of foreclosure. Using funds appropriated through the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008 and additional leveraged private funds, our public-private initiative will seek to put vacant, foreclosed properties back into productive use as quickly as possible. The initiative will oversee and coordinate targeted revitalization efforts in key areas of Chicago to mitigate the impact of foreclosure on our neighborhoods.

Our acquisition strategies will include expansion of HUD's $1 Homes program and bulk purchase of bank-owned properties. We also are working with national partners to see whether certain properties can be unlocked from securitization. Our disposition options include sale to an owner-occupant, lease-to-own, rental, and when necessary, demolition.

Community partner organizations will provide input on the real estate market in specific areas of their communities: identify and counsel potential homebuyers, renters, and lease-to-own participants; and monitor the management of rental properties.

Housing and Economic Recovery Act

The Department will provide leadership in implementing the Housing and Economic Recovery Act of 2008 to support affordable housing and community development in Chicago. In addition to providing emergency assistance for redeveloping foreclosed homes, this legislation creates several new opportunities for the Department and its partners. For example, we will work with our partners to develop a strategy for using mortgage revenue bonds to refinance subprime mortgages. We also will work to ensure that Chicago developments receive funding from the newly created Housing Trust Fund and Capital Magnet Fund.

Homeownership

Though affordable rental housing will be the Department's top priority, we will continue to promote and support homeownership through proven, time-tested programs, including City Mortgage, TaxSmart, City Lots for City Living and New Homes for Chicago. Our Five-Year Plan calls for providing homeownership assistance to 8,000 units.

Stimulating Market Activity

Changes in the economy and financial sector have significantly affected homeownership demand. Fewer buyers are able to qualify for mortgages, and some would-be buyers are reluctant to purchase due to perceived volatility in the marketplace. The Department will take a number of steps to increase demand for homeownership.

As lenders tighten their credit requirements, thousands of Chicagoans will need help in learning how to save money and enhance their credit scores. The Department will work with educational and financial institutions to provide renters, as well as homeowners, with counseling, financial literacy courses and savings programs.

We will consider modifying our program of purchase-price assistance to stimulate market activity. Currently, purchase-price assistance is available to low income buyers who purchase homes produced through New Homes for Chicago and the Chicago Partnership for Affordable Neighborhoods (CPAN). We will explore the possibility of expanding this program to provide purchase-price assistance to buyers of single-family homes and condos that are sitting vacant because of foreclosure or reduced demand. In some cases, this assistance may be connected to a requirement for long-term affordability.

The Department will also intensify its marketing efforts for City-assisted for-sale developments and will work with lenders to ensure that buyers have access to appropriate mortgage products.

Employer Assisted Housing

The Department will continue to work with local employers to develop programs that give their employees incentives to buy homes near their workplaces. Employer-assisted housing helps employees reduce commuting costs, encourages homeownership, strengthens neighborhoods, builds employee loyalty and reduces turnover.

Preservation of Single-Family Housing

The 2009-2013 Five-Year Plan will continue our programs to preserve and improve the city's aging housing stock. The 2009-2013 Plan calls for investing over $100 million to assist nearly 10,000 units through the Single-Family Troubled Buildings Initiative, Home Repairs for Accessible and Independent Living (H-RAIL), the TIF Neighborhood Improvement Program (TIF-NIP), and the Emergency Housing Assistance Program.

Neighborhood Lending Program

The Neighborhood Lending Program (NLP), a partnership between Neighborhood Housing Services of Chicago, the City of Chicago, and more than 20 lending institutions, provides access to capital for purchase, rehab, and refinancing of single-family homes. The loan products offered through NLP support affordable homeownership, prevent foreclosures, and help revitalize Chicago neighborhoods. The 2009-2013 plan calls for the Department to invest $250 million to assist 2,900 homes.

Other Paths to Affordability

Discussions of affordable housing tend to focus on construction costs, rent subsidies and interest rates, but these are only part of the picture. Housing can be made more affordable by reducing energy costs, creating new efficiencies and aligning government policies.

Reducing Energy Costs

In addition to rent or mortgage payments, households pay considerable sums for utilities and transportation and those costs can be minimized through wise government policies.

Transit-Oriented Development

With gasoline costs rising, transportation can add thousands of dollars a year to living costs. The Center for Neighborhood Technology reports that some suburban families spend as much as 26 percent of their income on transportation, almost as much as they spend on housing. In compact, transit-rich communities, the Center reports, transportation can take up as little as 14 percent of household income.

The Department will encourage developers of affordable housing to seek sites with easy access to public transportation and will encourage mixed-use, transit-oriented developments that include affordable housing. We also will look for ways to implement an affordable housing density bonus program near transit nodes.

Creating Efficiencies

When the economy is sluggish and government resources are tight, we must work even more efficiently to make the most of every dollar. However, as members of our advisory committee reminded us, the cheapest products and procedures are not always the most cost-effective in the long run. We will work with experts in the field to study the costs associated with the construction and preservation of affordable housing.

The Department will review policies and procedures involved in the creation and preservation of affordable housing with an eye toward making them more efficient.

We will seek to align the operations of all City departments involved in housing to the extent possible.

The need for affordable housing is not unique to Chicago; it extends throughout the Chicago metropolitan area. The Department will work with the Metropolitan Mayors Caucus and the Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning to coordinate housing efforts throughout the region.

In 2003, the Historic Chicago Bungalow Initiative was established to provide financial assistance to homeowners to make their bungalows energy efficient. A $3.5 million grant from the Illinois Clean Energy Community Foundation funded three green bungalow model block projects to showcase new technologies in energy efficiency. To date over 1,000 units have received assistance under this initiative.

The green building techniques saved each bungalow $700 to $1,000 a year in energy costs—the equivalent of saving $60 to $30 a month in mortgage payments. In addition, green building helps the local economy by creating jobs in industries that produce environmentally sound building materials.

We expect additional funding for energy-saving initiatives to be made available over the next several years from local utilities, as well as the federal government. Mayor Daley's Chicago Climate Change Action Plan has a goal of retrofitting 400,000 housing units by 2020 and reducing energy use by 30 percent.

The Department will work closely with the Department of Environment to ensure that affordable housing developments have a high priority in receiving grants or incentives for energy conservation.

We look for creative ways to build affordable housing that contains the most green features at the lowest cost, using environmentally friendly, locally produced building materials whenever they are economically feasible. Green building is not an all-or-nothing proposition. A variety of environmental features can be incorporated into any building, and we can choose those that make the most sense for each project.

The City's expedited green permitting process offers developers an additional incentive to build green. And we will work with the Cook County Assessor's Office to explore the possibility of real estate tax incentives for green construction and retrofits.

Maintaining Affordable Rental Housing

We will explore the possibility of expanding the Chicago Community Land Trust (CCLT) to cover rental housing. The program, designed to maintain long-term affordability of initially subsidized homes, currently applies only to for-sale housing.

One of the key benefits to CCLT homeowners is a reduction in property taxes. The CCLT will also position itself to offer the property tax benefit to existing homeowners in exchange for long-term affordability.

Advocacy and Leadership

A nation as rich as ours should work to make affordable housing available to those who need it. The Department will continue to work at every level of government to ensure that affordable housing remains a priority and receives its fair share of any new state or federal funding that becomes available.

We also will advocate for government policies that enable low- and moderate income residents to obtain and remain in housing they can afford. This could include reducing property taxes, better social services, tougher regulations of predatory lenders, additional financial counseling, and seeking every opportunity to advocate for policy and financial resources to address foreclosures.

Chicago is a national financial center, home to large numbers of creative and talented finance experts in private industry, universities and the nonprofit sector. The Department will seek to marshal this expertise in an effort to make this city a national leader in developing new and innovative financing tools to expand affordable housing.

Affordable housing is not solely a government responsibility. Whenever possible, the Department will work with its non-governmental partners to achieve our common objectives.

Moving Forward Together

Meeting the housing needs of Chicago's low-and-moderate-income residents in an uncertain national economy presents a major challenge.

In a diverse city with a wide variety of housing, there is no one-size-fits-all solution. Under the Mayor's leadership, Chicago has become a national leader in the field of affordable housing by successfully implementing a number of different programs, each aimed at a specific housing need. Over the next five years, we will continue to make the most of all these programs. And as new needs arise, we will develop new programs to address them. We will continue to call on the best minds in the field to help us become even more innovative and creative as we adapt to changing circumstances. The Department will be ready and eager to take advantage of positive developments over the next five years, such as an unexpected improvement in the national housing environment or the selection of Chicago as the host city for the 2016 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

Fortunately, Chicago has a long tradition of partnerships involving the public, private and not-for-profit sectors. We have a multitude of individuals and organizations dedicated to creating and preserving affordable housing and removing the obstacles that keep too many of our residents from a decent home.

Chicago also has a tradition, extending back for more than a century and a half, of meeting the most daunting challenges. This is a city that rebuilt after a disastrous fire, reversed the flow of a river and reinvented itself time and again. It's a city that has the energy and creativity to find new ways to ensure that its residents are able to live in decent, safe affordable housing.

Be It Ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION I. Chapter 9-48 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by adding a new Section 9-48-100, as follows:

9-48-100 Neighborhood Electric Vehicles.

(a) The operation of neighborhood electric vehicles shall be permitted only upon streets and alleys which are subject to a speed limit of 30 miles per hour or less and which are under the sole jurisdiction of the city.

(b) It shall be unlawful to operate a neighborhood electric vehicle upon any street in the city where the posted speed limit is more than 30 miles per hour. This subsection does not prohibit a neighborhood electric vehicle from crossing a street at an intersection where the street being crossed has a posted speed limit of not more than 45 miles per hour. A neighborhood electric vehicle shall not cross a street with a speed limit in excess of 45 miles per hour unless it is crossing at an intersection controlled by a traffic light or 4-way stop sign.

(c) No person shall operate a neighborhood electric vehicle that (i) does not conform to the requirements of Section 11-1426.1 of the Illinois Vehicle Code, codified at 625 ILCS 5/11-1426.1, as amended, for safety equipment and lighting; and (ii) does not have doors in place. When operated on a street or roadway, a neighborhood electric vehicle shall have its headlights and tail lamps lighted as required by Section 12-201 of the Illinois Vehicle Code, codified at 625 ILCS 5/12-201, as amended, and its doors closed.

(d) Drivers of neighborhood electric vehicles must be licensed to drive motor vehicles.

(e) If the Illinois Secretary of State issues registration plates for neighborhood electric vehicles, it shall be unlawful to operate or park on any public way a neighborhood electric vehicle that is not fitted with front and rear registration plates. The city clerk is authorized to issue a wheel tax license emblem for neighborhood electric vehicles in essentially the same form as the emblem issued to motor bicycles, motor tricycles, motor scooters or mopeds. Neighborhood electric vehicles must display wheel tax license emblems. Until such time as the Illinois Secretary of State issues registration plates for such vehicles, (i) the city is authorized to enforce any law applicable to neighborhood electric vehicles by using a vehicle identification number in lieu of a registration plate number; and (ii) for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Code applicable to neighborhood electric vehicles, including Sections 3-56-145, 4-232-080, 4-236-060, 9-56-020, 9-56-030, 9-64-220, 9-100-030, 9-100-050, 9-100-060 and 9-100-120, the terms "registration plate number", "license plate number", "license plate" or "state registration number" shall instead be read to mean "vehicle identification number".

(f) Except as otherwise provided in this section, neighborhood electric vehicles shall be subject to all of the requirements of this Code applicable to motor vehicles of the first division. Neighborhood electric vehicles shall be operated in accordance with the rules of the road applicable to other motor vehicles. No person shall operate a neighborhood electric vehicle on a sidewalk, on foot paths or on any other surface where motor vehicle operation is otherwise prohibited. It shall be unlawful to operate or to cause to be operated a neighborhood electric vehicle on the public ways of the city unless such vehicle is covered by a liability insurance policy as required by Section 7-601 of the Illinois Vehicle Code, codified at 625 ILCS 5/7-601, as amended.

(g) The department of police shall have the authority to impound neighborhood electric vehicles for such violations of this Code which specify vehicle impoundment as a consequence of violation. When a neighborhood electric vehicle is impounded, the City shall notify the owner or any person who is found to be in control of the neighborhood electric vehicle at the time of the alleged violation, if there is such a person, of the fact of the impoundment and the neighborhood electric vehicle owner's right to request a preliminary hearing to be conducted under Section 2-14-132 of this Code. If the owner or other person in control of the neighborhood electric vehicle cannot be found, the City shall publish such notice one day a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation. The provisions of Section 2-14-132 shall apply whenever a neighborhood electric vehicle is impounded pursuant to this section.

(h) The commissioner may designate portions of streets to be unsuitable for neighborhood electric vehicle operation and may prohibit such operation if, after considering the volume, speed and character of traffic on the street, the commissioner determines that public safety will be jeopardized by the operation of neighborhood electric vehicles on that street or portion thereof.

(i) It shall be unlawful to operate or cause to be operated any neighborhood electric vehicle on the public ways of the city, unless signs or decals permanently and conspicuously affixed to the rear of the vehicle and the dashboard of the vehicle stating "This Vehicle May Not Be Operated on Streets With Speed Limits in Excess of 30 m.p.h.". The lettering of the sign or decal on the dashboard shall not be less than one-half inch in height. The sign on the rear window shall face the outside of the vehicle, and the lettering of the sign shall be in prominent type, not less than two inches in height, clearly visible to and readable by the public, and in a color that contrasts with the background color of the sign. No such sign shall be affixed more than 6 inches down from the top of the rear window.

Neighborhood Electric Vehicles Shall Not Be Operated On Streets
Subject To A Speed Limit Of More Than 30 Miles Per Hour

The lettering of the sign shall be in prominent type, not less than two inches in height, clearly visible to and readable by the public, and in a color that contrasts with the background color of the sign.

(k) The exemptions granted to authorized emergency vehicles under Section 9-48-010 of this Code shall apply to neighborhood electric vehicles when such vehicles are used as authorized emergency vehicles in accordance with Section 9-48-010 of this Code.

(l) The commissioner is authorized to adopt such rules and regulations as he may deem appropriate for the proper administration and enforcement of the provisions of this section.

THE HONORABLE RICHARD M. DALEY, MAYOR And OTHERS:

UNITED STATES CONGRESS URGED TO INCLUDE PROVISION IN AMERICAN RECOVERY AND REINVESTMENT ACT OF 2009 ALLOWING UTILIZATION OF STATE AND LOCAL PROCUREMENT AUTHORITY BY GRANT RECIPIENTS.

[R2009-144]

A proposed resolution presented by the Honorable Richard M. Daley, Mayor, and Aldermen Flores, Dowell, Hairston, Lyle, Harris, Beale, Pope, Balcer, Cárdenas, Olivo, Foulkes, Thompson, Thomas, Muñoz, Burnett, E. Smith, Carothers, Reboyras, Mell, Austin, Colón, Mitts, Allen, Laurino, Doherty, Reilly, Daley, Tunney, Levar, Shiller, Schulter and Moore, reading as follows:

WHEREAS, The United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate have passed different versions of legislation entitled the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 ("the Recovery Act"), and the House and the Senate are working to resolve their differences and further amend the legislation; and

WHEREAS, The purposes of the Recovery Act include job preservation and creation, infrastructure investment, energy efficiency and science, assistance to the unemployed, and State and local fiscal stabilization; and

WHEREAS, Despite these laudable and necessary goals, both versions of the Recovery Act are unnecessarily and prohibitively inflexible by effectively requiring that certain grant funds be expended pursuant to federal laws and regulations rather than City of Chicago procurement procedures established pursuant to State law and City ordinance; and

WHEREAS, For example, federal law requires that grant funds be expended with Disadvantaged Business Entities (D.B.E.s) that are certified under federal law, rather than opening participation by qualified minority and women-owned enterprises (M./W.B.E.s) that have been certified at the state or local level; and

WHEREAS, Under its own M./W.B.E. program, the City of Chicago has certified over one thousand six hundred businesses; and

WHEREAS, Not all M./W.B.E. businesses will qualify for D.B.E. status, and many qualified businesses have not yet applied for D.B.E. status; and

WHEREAS, As an example of the differences between the programs, a business owner may qualify under the City's M./W.B.E. program for construction contracts if his or her net worth is less than Two Million Dollars, while a business owner whose net worth is over Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars will be disqualified from federal D.B.E. status; and

WHEREAS, The purposes of the Recovery Act will best be served by allowing State and local procurement practices to be followed with respect to contracts paid for with funds that are made available under the Recovery Act; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we, the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, assembled this eleventh day of February, 2009, do hereby urge the United States Congress to include in the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 provisions that will allow state and local grant recipients to follow state and local procurement practices rather than federally required laws and rules for grant recipients, including without limitation the using of M./W.B.E.s rather than D.B.E.s, and do hereby urge the President of the United States to approve such legislation when it is passed by the Congress; and

Be It Further Resolved, That we urge, in the event that the Recovery Act does not include such a provision, all businesses that may qualify for D.B.E. certification to quickly take all necessary steps to obtain such certification if they have not already done so; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be delivered to the President of the United States, the President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of the Illinois congressional delegation.

WHEREAS, In 1935, the United States Congress approved the National Labor Relations Act thereby declaring the United States' policy to encourage the practice of collective bargaining by protecting the exercise by workers of their freedom of self-organization, association and choice of representation for the purpose of negotiating the terms and conditions of their employment; and

WHEREAS, The freedom to form or join a union has been internationally recognized by the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights as a fundamental human right; and

WHEREAS, Since their inception, unions have provided a better standard of living, health and pension benefits, and equal and fair treatment for all of its members; and

WHEREAS, Unions also provide benefits to the communities where their members reside by strengthening the living standards, stabilizing the tax basis and encouraging civic participation of its members in these towns and cities; and

WHEREAS, Unionized employees earn on average thirty percent more than nonunion employees and are sixty-three percent more likely to have employer-provided healthcare benefits; and

WHEREAS, Over half of all workers in the United States, approximately sixty million people, have said that they would join a union if they could; and

WHEREAS, Despite laws providing for the right to choose whether to organize, employers routinely use a combination of tactics (both legal and some illegal) in order to silence employees who attempt to form unions and bargain for better wages and working conditions; and

WHEREAS, When faced with organizing drives, one quarter of employers fire at least one pro-union worker; over half of all employers threaten to close a worksite if the union prevails; and approximately ninety-one percent of employers force their employees to attend one-on-one anti-union meetings with their supervisors; and

WHEREAS, When the rights of workers to form a union are violated, wages decline, race and gender pay gaps widen, workplace discrimination increases and job safety standards lapse; and

WHEREAS, As a result of these behaviors by employers throughout the country, lawmakers and policymakers have introduced the Employee Free Choice Act into the United States Congress in order to restore workers' freedom to join unions; and

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago has a long history in supporting the efforts of the common working man and woman and is well known as a pro-union town; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago City Council has determined that, in order to protect the residents of Chicago and to ensure the economic well-being of the city, it must ensure that all employers in the City of Chicago permit and allow for its employees to freely form, join or assist labor organizations; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we, the Mayor and members of the City Council of the City of Chicago, do hereby memorialize the Congress of the United States to enact the Employee Free Choice Act that would protect and preserve the freedom of America's workers to organize and join unions by authorizing the National Labor Relations Board to certify a union as the bargaining representative when a majority of employees voluntarily sign authorization cards (commonly known as "card check" recognition), providing for first contract mediation and arbitration, and establishing meaningful penalties for violations of a worker's right to join a union; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a suitable copy of this resolution be delivered to each member of the Illinois Delegation to the United States Congress, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate and the President of the United States, Barack H.
